Try to remember the kind of September
When life was slow and oh, so mellow.
Try to remember the kind of September
When grass was green and grain was yellow.
Try to remember the kind of September
When you were a tender and callow fellow.
Try to remember, and if you remember,
Then follow.
Follow, follow, follow, follow.

Try to remember when life was so tender
That no one wept except the willow.
Try to remember when life was so tender
That dreams were kept beside your pillow.
Try to remember when life was so tender
That love was an ember about to billow.
Try to remember, and if you remember,
Then follow.

Deep in December, it's nice to remember,
Although you know the snow will follow.
Deep in December, it's nice to remember:
Without a hurt the heart is hollow.
Deep in December, it's nice to remember
The fire of September that made us mellow.
Deep in December, our hearts should remember,
And follow.

The year that seemed to stretch out interminably last September is rapidly coming to a close and it is Annual Time again. In our minds all the events of the year seem to come tumbling around us, sometimes chaotically, sometimes orderly, sometimes happily, sometimes sadly. And it is with the last that the Annual Club has dedicated this issue to the memory of the eight young men lost on the Willow River. To all their friends and relatives, our heartfelt sympathies are extended.

AND

I keep telling myself that its over
I keep telling myself that you're free
but the wind outside seems to be getting lonlier
And its keeping perfect time inside of me.

Ian Rice

I keep telling myself it all ends sometime
And life isn't eternity
but the wind outside my mind is drifting
And I feel like breaking up inside of me.

Each night I listen to the wind, I listen
it seems you were here just yesterday
but now, all I have is memories and I still have to face today.

C. R. FIELD TRIPS

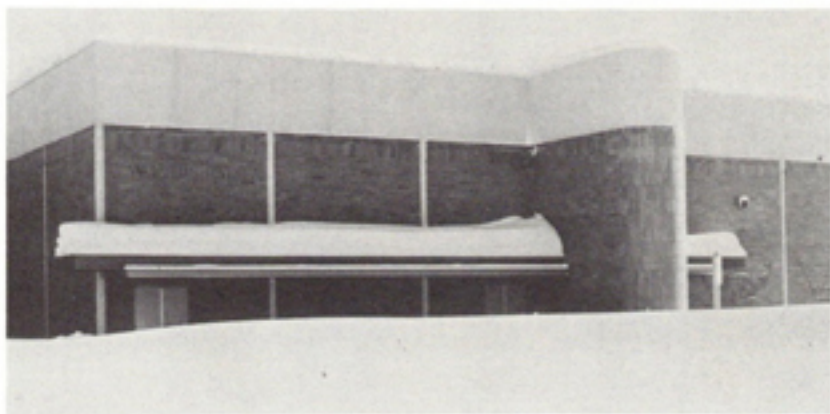

Winter

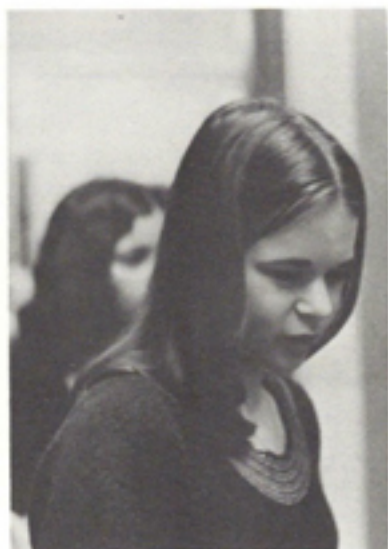

CLASS OF '74

DAVE ABERNATHY: Dave seems to have no thoughts on anything. Good luck on your degree in indecisiveness!

BEN ABRAHAMS, Prince George: You can see this ball of enthusiasm and smiles expertly skiing any hills, or in the summer he escapes all reality riding his bike. A really great guy!

JIM ADAIR, Nanaimo: Jim was a member of the Grad committee this year. He feels that the population explosion hit PGSSS. You can see him wandering the halls and lurking in the smoke room. Best to you, Jim.

JOANNE ADAIR, Nanaimo: Joanne was a busy girl this year with her trip to London with the H.H. and her great enthusiasm on the Grad committee. Her future plans include a nursing career. Good luck, Joanne.

KEN ADEY: Ken won't tell anyone anything except his name. You must have a very censored life, Ken.

BOB AFFLECK, London, England: Bob's ambition this year was to grow his hair to his knees. He almost made it, and it's beautiful. Hope your years at university are as exciting as the year of '74.

BARRY ALCORN, Glasgow, Scotland: Barry is a fan of Mr. Nevilles because he is smart. Besides sleeping and smoking, Barry seems to really enjoy adding a bit of variety to the school dances.

COLIN ALCORN, Whitehaven, England: Little Lady Lyford and Egghead Edger bring back fond memories to Colin. In the near future he would like to travel and eventually get into teaching.

DEBBIE ANDRES, Prince Albert, Sask.: You can find Deb wrapped around underneath and inside her pottery wheel, covered in clay. Her last comment "In senior high, the fun just begins and it's time to go!"

GEORGIA ANDRES, Saskatoon: Georgia has fond memories of her English 12 class and she tries hard at skiing — at least she makes it to the bottom. Better luck in future winters!

EILEEN ANDERSON, Ont.: Eileen could be found after g.b. 12 eating jelly donuts with Grace. Her memories of 73-74 include a ski trip to Jasper and spending the summer with J.R. Best to you!

LENORE ANDERSON: How does Lenore spend her time? She'll never tell. Lots of luck Lenore!

WENDY ANDERSON, P.G.: Wendy believes that World War 3 may be started because of the lack of chairs in our cafeteria. Her future plans include becoming a teacher. Best to you, Wendy.

DON ANTOSCO: Don frequents the Inn, searching for a certain young lady. The rest of his time is occupied working on his car. His future dreams and schemes are his secret.

GREG ANTOSZ, Victoria: Greg plans on going into Forestry when he finishes school. Hey, we hear that you have more than peanuts in your head. Watch out for the shells.

RANDY APPLETON, P.G.: Randy can be seen in the summer hot-dogging on his bike and in the winter terrorizing the ski hills. Randy leaves us with "Thank God I'm Out!"

DARLENE ARNOLD, Edmonton: Darlene was another H.H. that enjoyed her easter in London. She says that school is nice, but she does not mind that it is just about over.

GRIT AAROE, Germany: Business Machines and typing were a few of her more interesting classes. Grits future plans include going into the working world and then marriage. Good luck.

JOHN ASHCROFT, Edmonton: John would like to travel to Europe after he graduates. He has fond memories of Mr. Robertsons grand exit from the school after Christmas. We wish you the best, John.

ELIZABETH ASHTON, Calgary: Liz will always be remembered as the geography whiz in Mr. Robertsons class. Her plans include settling down with a certain cop. Best to you in the future, Liz.

ELLEN AUBREY: Three cheers for Ellen, she likes the cafeteria! Mrs. Kreiger will love you. Her future plans are to go onto university. Hope you have a good time there.

SEAN AUGHEY, Australia: Sean has fond memories of the Math dept. because he won't have to be there anymore. During the summer he plans to put as many miles on his motorbike as possible.

GRENVILLE AULAK: Grenville was a member of the school wrestling team. He enjoyed both Math and chemistry, he says that they let him get to the 'meat' of the subject. Good luck!

TONY AVILA, Portugal: This ski-bunny thinks the cafe area is too crowded. How about Purden on a Sunday afternoon? Tony would like to travel one year and then work. Have a good time.

LEONIE BACHAND, P.G.: This Heritage Hunter remembers playing floor hockey in CR when no other girls would. In the future she would like to be a kindergarten teacher.

ROGER BACHAND, P.G.: Roger is a winter lover and a ski-doo freak. He is forever terrorizing other skidoos by running over them. As of now he has no future plans, you'll think of something tho.

BOB BECOTT, New West.: Bob was one of the stars on the Polars. In his spare time he enjoys making cars — how about your pieced together V.W. In the future he would like to travel. All the best.

GRAHAM BAKER: Graham was a member of the dance committee and drama club and wrestling team. WOW. In the future he would like to go to university and become a PE teacher.

TERRY BAIN, Kamloops: Terry is the tall, silent type. But he managed to put up with a bunch of crazy CR students on a camp-out. We hear you came out with flying colours but is still the tall-silent type.

PERRY BAKULA: Perry will always be remembered for his sneakers — plodding through these "halls of learning". Perry dreams about his future, whatever that will involve. Good luck at everything.

VAL BAKANOWSKI: Val can be found walking around the dance floors, and it's usually not in a straight line! Good luck in whatever you choose to do, Val.

WESLEY BARBER, P.G.: Wesley wants to get a good paying job with no work. Good luck! Also he says that the school is good "but" some of the teachers have to go.

GREG BARNES, Vancouver: If you're looking for Greg you can find him packing bags at Overwaitee. We hear you had a good time in Jasper. Too bad your steering wheel wasn't of better quality.

DAVE BARTELL: Dave is the guy with the gorgeous sideburns and moustache to match. He was also on the wrestling team — note the muscles. Best to you in whatever you do.

BRUCE BARTON, P.G.: Bruce fondly remembers his three lucky tickets at the Spruce Kings hockey games. We wish you more good luck in the future Bruce.

DALE BOSHMAN: Dale wants to leave a message to all his teachers. "Thanks for passing me because of sympathy." Their answer "Thanks for the twenty dollar bill, Dale." Have fun at college! (more money)

JACKIE BEAULAC, Saskatoon, Sask.: Jackie is going into the well known profession of nursing. We hear you have a certain feeling for needles — watch out if Jackie is your nurse!

RICHARD BEAULIEU: Rick is a regular member of the smoke room. Any particular reason — or is it just the atmosphere? Good luck.

MICHAEL BECKER, Humbolt, Sask.: Mike hopes include attending U. Vic. and then someday travelling. Mike says he feels a little regret leaving the security of P.G.S.S.S. and entering the cold, cruel world.

RAY BELIVEAU, P.G.: Rays favorite pastimes are at the Red Rock Roo-aDome or at anyones party. We hear you have lots of good memories too! Best to you in th future Ray.

ARLENE BELL: Arlene is one of the cafeteria sweethearts. She likes to hide under the tables. Hope you have a good time and watch your head.

RETA BELLAMY, P.G.: Reta is a very outdoors girl and enjoys anything from skiing to driving her dad's skidder. The only thing that bothers her is no lunch hour — Sorry about that Reta.

JOHN BENNET, Whitehorse: John occupies his free time with water skiing and snow skiing. His future plans include attending university. We hear you have fond memories of the summer of '73.

RICK BENNINGSHOF, P.G.: If you go to the Spruce Kings hockey games you're sure to see Rick in the penalty box. Rick is hoping to follow a promising career in Hockey. Good luck!

BETH BERARD, Trenton, Ont.: Beth is undecided on whether to fall in love with Mr. Swannumson or Mr. Gordon. Mr. G has his nice chinese accent but that won't top Mr. S — the cross country hor-dogger.

LAURA BEREZANSKI, P.G.: Lauras' future plans are to go to college. If you ever want to find her just check the Inn — she'll be there.

KENT BERG: Kent says that he is here for anyone to have, so if you want him just take him away. But make sure you have something big enough to put him in.

NANCY BERRY, Guelph, Ont.: Nancy enjoys skiing and snowshoeing and is an active volleyball player. Hey, we heard about you and whatchamacallitt in the Pollars room — from a reliable source of course.

RITA BEVACQUA, Italy: Rita was born in Italy and she wants to go back across the ocean and see the rest of Europe. When she isn't working you can find her at the lake or at the park.

TERRY BEZNOCHUK, McBride, B.C.: Terry spends most of his spare time either skiing or working. He must have a gas eating car, an expensive girlfriend or lots of money.

KAREN BIGELOW: Karen was an active member of the school, either running around somewhere or singing in the swing choir. Best to you in the future Karen.

ANDY BIHUN, P.G.: Andy follows the same pattern many others do — skiing, drinking, homework. What happens when there is no snow? In the future Andy plans on university or tech. school.

HERB BLACK, Saskatoon, Sask.: Herb is a new comer to P.G. In the summer he likes to go to the lake — hope the lakes here match your approval. Good luck!

RICK BLACKWELL: Well Rick, we're glad we've got your picture, because we don't know much about you.

SHIELA BELLANGER, Meadow Lake, Sask.: Shiela is planning on joining the armed forces. We understand they send alot of the armed forces to Siberian salt mines, there aren't any bars there! Good luck.

JUNE BLATCHFORD, Enderby, B.C.: June plans on working a year and then go to Finland. Better watch out, the guys in Finland aren't as shy as the ones here. Best to you and have fun.

NIEL BOLEN, Kamloops, B.C.: Niel wants to work his way up at MacDonalds or join the air force. Here's a secret, Niel, girls prefer guys in uniforms but not particularly MacDonalds uniforms.

CATHERINE BOND, P.G.: For Catherine PE 11 was the best course — it was easy. She says she enjoys P.G. but there isn't enough for teenagers to do. Oh well, in a few years you won't be a teenager.

GORDON BONAR, Van.: You can usually find Gord trying to sell his V. W. He has fond memories of the CR trip to Camp Ispah — we hear you weren't too good at lighting fires. Good luck, Gord.

BRIAN BOOTLON: Brian is a newer member to the school. He helped out on the annual when he had the time. Thanks Brian, we appreciated everything. Best to you in the future.

JUDY BOUDREAU, P.G.: Judy could always be found roller skating, looking for something to do or sitting in her power mechanics class. Got anything going for womans lib? you show 'em Judy.

LOUISE BOWMAN, Nova Scotia: Louise plans on heading into nursing and then marriage. She has fond memories of her En. 11 class and the people in it. Too bad she censors her weekends.

AYNER BOYER, Germany: Ayner hopes to be a Data processor and enjoys curling, cycling and camping. She also spends a lot of her time getting her sister out of her hair.

GORDON BRADSHAW: Gordon censors everything he does and everything he ever did. Maybe it is best to leave that as it is.

MARYANNE BRANDER, P.G.: Maryanne can be found anywhere, doing anything. She really enjoyed Math this year, as it was her second time through. Good luck, Maryanne.

TRACY BREWER, New West.: Tracy was another Heritage Hunter that spent her Easter in London. She can usually be found with a tall 'Eric' beside her. Best to you, Tracy.

HOLLY BRIGGS, P.G.: Holly plans on leaving the country and seeing the world. She has fond memories of her Bi. 11 field trip, and Halloween of '73.

VAL BRIN: We hear Val had some exciting happenings during this year but she won't tell anyone. Too bad.

LORRAINE BRISSON, Alt.: Lorraine wants to travel and have some fun before going to university. One thing though that she wants everyone to know — She always cleans up her mess in the cafeteria!

PETER BROZNITSKY, Dawson Creek: Pete is one of the mean baggers at safeways. His pet peeve is having drunk volleyball players in his car. He plans on visiting CNC periodically next year. Very beneficial Pete!

MARK BRUCE: Everyone was glad to have you around this year, Mark. And everyone says that you can come back next year if you want.

PATRICIA BUNTON, P.G.: Pat is another P.G. skier. She would like to go on to university — someplace where there is snow and a 'Jeremy' eh Pat? Good luck Pat.

DEE BURDEN: If you're looking for a whiz in everything, here she is. When she isn't busy with school she can usually be found whizzing around in her cute V.W. with her cute Gordie.

CATHY BURKETT, Winnipeg: For the past three years, Cathy has had nothing but fun, fun, fun. That's when she moved to the swinging metropolis of P.G. Cathy is planning to go to university. Good luck.

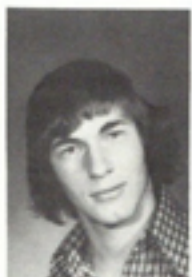

KEVIN BURT: Tall, Dark and quiet is Kevin, and he is also a good guy to have in a french class. Best to you Kevin,

KAREN CADDIN: Karen has lived her entire life in P.G. and she seems to enjoy skiing and swimming. Besides these two favorite sports, we hear you have another nasty hobby! Have lots of fun Karen.

DOUGAL CAMERON:

MITCH CAMPBELL, P.G.: Mitch plans to make a million dollars, but first he should get more out of his classes than "good sleeps."

MERLA CANN, P.G.: Merla seems to have trouble finding something to do in the winter, but in summer she cools off by wadding in mud puddles. Happy wadding.

DAVID CARON: Well Dave, I'm glad that you had just as good a time here as everyone else had. Going anywhere next year? If not, why don't you come back for another visit?

JANE CARSON, Man.: Going skiing in the winter and to the lake in the summer are two of Janes pastimes. She seems to have fond memories of the Biology Dept. — been doing any overtime experimenting?

BILL CASTLE, Calgary, Alta.: Bill has fond memories of the cooking dept at P.G.S.S.S. and is looking forward to the basketweaving and welding courses at C.N.C.

GARY CASTLE: Gary is a shy one when it comes to using a pen, but watch out for Gary on a Friday or Saturday night.

MIKE CHAPPEL: Mike is one of P.G.S.S.S.'s famous wrestlers. Just remember to restrict your wrestling to the mats, Mike.

ERNIE CHATHAM: With Ernie around, what more do you want? He's tall and good looking and clever. And he's a nut about Physics 12.

LEANN CHERRIS, Ocean Falls: Anytime is a party time for Leann. And she spends a lot of time in Vancouver. Her plans for after grad include working on an ocean liner. Don't get sea-sick Leann.

DORIS CHEVRETTE: Doris is another ex member of Mr. Dunlops French 12 classes. Well if you've lived through that you must be a pretty good kid.

MARLENE CHOW, P.G.: More people like Marlene are needed in the school. She was active in alot of things. In the future she plans on attending university. Keep smiling Marlene.

KAREN CHRISTENSEN, Thunder Bay, Ont.: Karen says she enjoyed drafting and textiles at this school. Her post high school plans are College. Good luck in whatever you do.

BONNIE CHRISTIAN: Bonnie was Queen Aurora for 1974. We hear you have a new addition to your hand, any plans? Best to you in your future.

JULIE CHRISTOFOLI: Julie isn't one for saying much, but when she does watch out. Good luck, Julie.

ROXANNE CHURCH, P.G.: We hear that Roxanne throws a mean rock up at the curling rink, but too bad she's so light on the sweeping. So far she is undecided on the future, whatever it is, good luck.

JOHN CLARKE, P.G.: John best remembers the interesting Geography classes with Mr. Robertson. Oh yea, He's another one of the sporty Spruce King stars. Best to you, John.

SUSAN CLARKE, Van.: Susan plans to take the Dental Assistant course at the C.N.C. when she finishes sleeping. Her favorite department is the Janitorial dept.

RON COLEBANK, P.G.: Rons favorite passtime is leaning on the walls in front of the cafeteria. We understand you did alot more than ski on the Jasper ski trip. He plans on leaning on the university walls next.

VERNA COLLINS: In the future you might find Vernas hand in your mouth as she plans on being a Dental Assistant. We hear you chalked up a fantastic attendance in En. 11. Keep your hands clean please.

TERRY COOK, P.G.: Everyone knows Terry, he's the guy that sleeps in the back of the class. The only class that he manages to stay awake in is Physics but not because he wants to. Good luck Terry . . . ahh Terry . . .

TOM COOK, Preeceville, Sask., Tom wants you to know he is not a farmboy! He wants to know what happens to all the innocent dogs that wander into the cafeteria. Tell us if you find out Tom.

BRAD COOPER, Telfonburg, Ont.: Brad was a member of good standing in the smoke room. He claims he liked Mr. Robertsons Geo. 12 class, and has fond memories of the music dept. Attending college in the east is next for Brad.

PAUL COPEMAN, London, England: Paul seems to be a consientous, outdoor person. He likes lakes and mountains, skiing and working at Super Value. Next year he plans to attend college. Good luck.

LAWRENCE CORBETT, Victoria: Lawrence was a real snowshoeing enthusiast. This year you could always find him helping out at the Polar games. We wish you luck in your future plans dealing with heavy duty mechanics.

NANETTE CORDINER, Burns Lake: Nanette was another enthusiastic Heritage Hunter. Besides her trip to London, she has fond memories of the canoe trip with C.R. 12. Best to you, Nanette.

ANN CORMACK, P.G.: Ann would like to travel in the near future and then attend U.B.C. She likes tennis and bike riding and enjoys quiet weekends at the lake. Yea Ann!

EVALYN CORRELA: We know that you are an interesting person, Evalyn, but why not let anyone know. She must be keeping a secret.

MICHEL COTE, River Blue, P.Q.: Michel doesn't want much from life, he only wants to make a million dollars. He and his dune buggy shouldbe able to do it in a few years. Hope you make it.

DEANNA COURTICE: Deanna was another member of the volleyball team. Without her great serving and spiking they would never been good at all. Keep smiling Deanna and we wish you the best.

BRENDA COX: Brenda is another secretive person, but we found out that she had a pretty good time in her English 12 class. Good luck Brenda and don't get lost.

ELIZABETH CRACKNELL, New Market, Ont.: Elizabeth says that she wants to be a good clerk in a store. Also she said that she has enjoyed this school more than any other. Yea Elizabeth.

ANNE CRAWFORD, Kemano, B.C.: Anne says she learns a lot from jokes, namely Mr. Bacons'. She can usually be found holding up the wall by the cafeteria, or in the smokeroom. Good luck in the future.

TED CRISPIN, N. West.: Ted seems to have a grudge against going to homeroom, but in the summer he enjoys going to Cranbrook hill. Best to you, Ted, and we hope that you enjoy the hill this summer.

And here's a member of the silent majority, he's planning a future as a secret agent and refuses to say anything.

LARRY CRUZ, P.E.I.: Larry is a health nut and believes that drinking is the best thing for you. He plans to further his education in college. Three cheers for Larry.

PAT DALGLEISH, P.G.: Pat spends most of her time at parties, whether school's on or not. After she graduates Pat plans on traveling. Hope you have a good party!

JOHN DALCOLLETO, Switzerland: Another soccer star from the year 1974. John plans on attending university in the future and maybe playing a few more soccer games.

MARILYN DALLY, Van.: Marilyn was an active member of the badminton club this year. She particularly remembers a trip to Victoria in '73. Marilyn's plans include working and then marriage.

NUZARALP DAMANI: Nuzaralp spent this year at P.G.S.S.S. furthering his education. good luck Nuzaralp.

BONNIE DANDY, Lilloet, B.C.: Bonnies favorite passtime is resting. She enjoys snowshoeing and skiing. Her only comment is "thank gosh this is my last year!"

SUSAN DAVIDSON, Fairview, Alb.: Susan enjoys playing baseball with the commercial league she is on. Most of her extra spare time is spent at her part-time job. Keep on batting Sue.

GARRY DAVEY, P.G.: Garry is the kind of guy to have around because he enjoys cooking! So girls, if you're looking for one that cooks, look for Garry. P.S. He dances too.

PAT DAVIE, Van.: Yea, for skiing! This is Pat's favorite of all winter sports. As for after graduation plans Pat is undecided but we hope you have fun at whatever you do.

LEN DAWSON: Len's most exciting game, and the one he is best at is playing janitor. What more can you say about this gorgeous blonde?

DOUG DEAN, New West.: Here's another ski bum and a camping freak. Sometime Doug plans on attending university, but not until he has visited Wizard Island. Hooray for Wizard Island and Doug!

BERNIE DENIS, P.G.: We've found him. Here is the famous poker dealer from the smoke room. Denis's plans for the future is to simply . . . leave . . .

YVONNE DEROOSE, Van.: Yvonne would like to be a cashier. Her favorite passtime was snitching french-fries from the cafeteria. We hope all your plans come true, Yvonne, and good luck.

MICHAEL DITTARO, Fort Fraser, Ont.: Michael has spent a good part of this year wandering the halls on crutches with a dark haired girl carrying his books. What's next in Women's Lib?

NORM DOBSON: Everybody knows Norm. He was the super-star in all his physical ed. classes. Whatever you do Norm, we hope it is the best.

LUANNE DOFKA, Alta.: Luanne has fond memories of english and bookkeeping because of all the neat things she did. In the future she would like to find a job and then maybe get married.

JOYCE DOREY: You remember Joyce, she's the one that smiles and blushes when you look at her. We've heard that she has really enjoyed herself this year. Good luck Joyce.

ERNESTINE DORNBUSCH, Terrace: Ernestine plans to take a long long vacation of sleeping in after grad. I guess that after 12 long hard years of school you deserve it.

MARLITA DOUDIET, P.G.: Marlita hopes to land an office job, and then? She really enjoys swimming, skating and dancing. Hope you fulfill your plans.

DEAN DOWNEY, Sask.: Dean is a crazy snowmobile driver. Everyone breathes a sigh of relief when Dean retires his snowmobile for the summer. But the passive summer hours will be interrupted with his motorbike.

MARY DRYDEN, Germany: Marys most beneficial course was CR 12 because she said it kept her figure where she wanted it. She really likes traveling and plans to work in an office in the near future.

PEGGY DRYDEN, Germany: Peggy is another skier during winter and in the summer she likes to just lay around and relax. Her future plans involve going to college.

JEANETTE DRYDYUL: Jeanette is a member of the silent group and doesn't like anyone to know anything about her. But, she's not to good at keeping herself a secret.

GRAHAM DUDFIELD, North Van.: Graham is another super water-skiier but if you can't find him cutting the waves you can see him speeding around any corner in his hot car.

JAY DUMAS: Three cheers for Jay, he's the best ping-pong player around. Keep up the fast paddle Jay, we're counting on you. Best to you in the future.

DALE DUNBAR: Has anyone seen Dale? We hear that Superman is looking for him. He needs someone that doesn't disclose information about himself. Good luck Dale.

TERRY DUNKLEY: Everybody knows Terry, so you know what a nice guy he is. What more can you say about a guy like Terry except good luck and have fun Terry.

KEITH DUNNING: Here's the hard working carpet guy. If he's not standing in the hall holding up the walls, he's busy working on his carpets. Best to you Keith and keep on working.

GARY DUTHIE, Van.: Gary can be found running over little old ladies in his '59 Chev. He plans to go to B.C.I.T. and enter a field of radio broadcasting.

JIM DYCK: Well, it's been nice having you around Jim. Maybe if we're lucky and you're not we will have you around next year.

KEN ESAU, Van.: Hooray for snow and snowmobiles! Guess what Ken does in the winter? After grad Ken plans to apprenticeship in Automotive. To keep your snowmobile running?

ANNETTE EASTLAND, Comox, B.C.: This girl spends her summer weekends as well as her winter weekends and most likely her weeks too, fighting or making up with Gary.

RICK EDWARDS: Rick plans to become a member of the R.C.M.P. During the week he can always be found in the lineup in the cafeteria but he keeps his weekends censored.

DON EISBRENNER, P.G.: Don is another local ski bum. If he's not swooshing down the slopes, he's skiing behind a boat. His future plans include going to the collage and a trip to Hawaii. Good luck!

DAVID EPP, Chilliwack: David found Mx 12 very beneficial to his wallet and his car. I don't know about his brain but he claims that his stomach aches after every lunch. Happy partying!

SUSAN FLYNN, N.West.: Sue's plans are to become a "little kid teacher." Does it reflect on your hate for grade 12? Hope your next year is better. Yea Sue!

GORDON FAIRBAIRN, Edmonton: Gord claims that his automotive and law courses were good, they both deal directly with the outside world. Maybe we'll see you as a lawyer for unfortunate car owners?!

DENNIS FEDYK, Sask.: Dennis, a former stubble jumper, has been in P.G. five years so he is almost reformed. He enjoys girls, skidoing, girls, hiking, girls, and swimming. Good hunting!

DONNA FISHER: Donna is an avid car driver, but poor at filling out forms. We hear you had a good time March 29th, naughty girl. Good luck in the future.

WAYNE FILLIATRAULT: Wayne is another ladys man. And he just can't stay away from the cafeteria. Does food and girls make a healthy life? Wayne enjoys it. Good luck.

ROSEMARIE FINKS, P.G.: Rosemaries fondest memories are dissecting pigs in Bi 12. She would like to work at B.C. Tel as an operator, leaving her spare time for a certain someone. All the best, Rose.

LOUISE FRASER, Van.: Louise has fond memories of the socials dept. because of Mr. Gordon. Her plans include furthering her education and riding horses. Have fun!

ANNETTE FRIESEN, P.G.: If you're looking for Annette, try the smoke room, you'll likely find her. In the winter she enjoys skiing at Tabor Mountain. We know you'll have fun, at whatever you do.

BRUCE FOREMAN, Port Alberni: Bruce can often be seen slaving at Safeway pushing around grocery carts. He plans to go to university. We hear you were a whiz at French 12.

LYNN FORREST, P.G.: Lynn claims she likes Mr. Gordon's History 12 because of his nee, nee, nee, nee. She plans to take the nursing program at the college.

KATHY FURBY: Kathy is fun to have around, but she becomes blank when it is time to fill out forms. Keep laughing.

STEVE FURBY: Steve has one of the nicest smiles, if you can ever find him smiling. We hear you're a great cook when it comes to Chinese food. May your chopsticks never wear out.

TONY FUOCO: Tony spends most of his time holding up walls and girl watching. The thing he likes most in life is the parties.

ANNE GAIRNS, P.G.: Anne is well known on the ski slopes and a hard working annual member. Her memories include the physics teachers that couldn't make up tests she couldn't do. Stay up there Anne.

JUDY GALLO — Sorry we goofed. Judy is in grade eleven. You will get your write up next year.

DENNISE GALLANT: Denise is a dark haired, brown eyed female member of the group that won't fill out forms. Oh well, have a good time.

BRENDA GALLOWAY: Brenda smiles alot, maybe she is trying to hide the mistake she made in Math 12. All the best, Brenda.

GRACE GASHINSKY, P.G.: Grace has her future well planned. It involves being a legal stenographer and maybe L.D. P.S. She loves jelly doughnuts.

WAYNE GARRAWAY, Comox, B.C.: Wayne is noted for his poor memory, he can't even remember how many years he has lived in P.G. The only thing that sticks in his mind is that C.R. was a fun course.

DALE GAGNE, P.G.: Dale is a Prince George pioneer who spends his life going to school, sleeping and working. Any fond memories of geography 12 Dale? Good luck in the future.

MAUREEN GEORGE, P.G.: Maureen is a chick who likes to come back from Hawaii and gloat at her white faced friends. She plans to travel when she finishes school.

RANDY GEDAK: A friend we won't forget.

PAT GIESINGER, P.G.: We're proud of Pat. For two years she's been involved in volleyball and basketball and this year she was a star. She plans to go to U.B.C. and go into teaching.

HEATHER GIBBS, P.G.: Heather plans to continue working and then get married. She can often be found in the smoke room and she says she'll never forget P.G.S.S.S.

ANNE GILMORE, Van.: Ann can usually be found with a tall blonde on crutches. Occasionally she attends classes and strains her brain to learn something. She plans to attend CNC next year.

NADINE GLASS: There isn't anything that can stump Nadine. This year she was a hard working member of the Reach For The Top group. Good luck in the future.

MARLENE GLAZER, Manitoba: Marlene has been a representative of student council this year. Her most beneficial course was automotives. Now she can keep her gears grinding.

DEBRA GLENN, Terrace: Debra is another one of the quiet majority of the school. She is always hiding from all the guys in the library. Debra hopes to become a nurse. Good luck.

JUDY GRAHAM, Port Alberni: Judy was a diligent Heritage Hunter and had a gas in London. She also enjoyed CR 12A. With your undecided future we wish you good luck.

BRENDA GRAHAM, Van.: Brenda is one of those few people who enjoyed the cafeteria. She especially thinks that the ladies that work there are nice. Brenda plans on going in for a hair dresser. Good luck.

TIM GRATTON: With a smile like Tims you would think he has a lot to say. Unfortunately he didn't. Best to you Tim.

WENDY GRAVES, Elk Point, Alb.: Wendy's favorite class was C.R. where we hear she had alot of fun. She plans on working in a bank or any place where she can be close to money.

MARK GRAFTON, Idaho: Mark is another one of our dear American friends. He has fond memories c. the Bi labs and says that they were full of idiots. Good luck.

MARILYN GREGORY: You can always find Marilyn walking down the halls or in the cafeteria. We hear you're a lover of Friday afternoons. All the best, Marilyn.

YVON GIRARD, P.G.: Yvon likes PGSSS and enjoyed playing on the school soccer team. He plans to apprentice for a carpenter. He liked construction 12A and 12B even though Mr. Sahlin worked him too hard.

SUSAN GRAY, Nova Scotia: Susan is a little twerp who didn't fill out her grad form. We wish you well anyway.

BEV GOODSON, P.G.: Bev has led a quiet, hardworking life at PGSSS. With her future as yet unplanned she will still be glad to graduate. Spring finds her watching the Canadian Hotel lacrosse team.

ELAINE GOYER: Elaine is noted for her great ability to skip out of classes. She was very surprised when she passed Math after missing twenty eight days. Hope you have just as much luck in the future.

DOUG GUDWER: Doug is Prince George's cross country ski champ. He's got a great future in the sport and maybe one of these days we'll see him at the Olympics. Keep it up Doug.

PAUL GULLACHER, P.G.: Paul has many fond memories of the Industrial Dept., Drafting in particular. His post high school plan is to somehow finish grade 12. You will make it.

SUSAN GUNNLAUGSON, Vancouver: Sue is a real sport. She's active in many school activities such as swing choir, Heritage Hunters, and badminton. In the future, it's travel or University for Sue. Good luck.

TERRY GUTFRIEND, Kamloops: Terry was half asleep when he filled out his grad form, so it didn't make too much sense. But we know that the only thing that will get him into the Caf. is if he's very very hungry.

GEORGE GUY, Vancouver: The Biology dept. is what brings fond memories to this Guy. He also enjoyed History 12 and the food in the caf. as long as it didn't eat him first. Good luck at UBC.

WAYNE HAGEL, Vancouver: Charlie boy enjoys skiing, snow mobiling and wild parties in Hixon's gravel pits. He found Mx 12B a gas with Mr. Monroe and his auto wreckers. Good luck at finding an easy well paying job.

WAYNE HALE, P.G.: Wayne says that when he finishes school he's going to work or apprenticeship. Apprenticeship in what? Girl hunting maybe. Well we wish you the best of luck. Have fun!

LOLA HALLER: Lola can always be found at lunch hours hanging around or driving in some pretty hot cars. Her aim in life is to marry a guy with a green car that goes fast.

LYLA HALLER, Kamloops: Lyla is a very sports minded person and that is what she can be usually found doing most. She plans to become a happy cashier at a local Grocery store. The girl at check out counter three.

DENISE HAMELIN, P.G.: Denise has spent two beneficial years in the commerce dept. at PGSSS. After doing some travelling, she hopes to go into secretarial work. Good luck.

DAWN HANBURY, P.G.: Dawn is a lover of horses and plans to attend the University of Saskatoon to become a veterinarian. She now spends alot of time riding, and the rest is spent at school.

GREG HANDLEY, Australia: Greg was our friendly visitor from that far off sunny land of Australia. He's gone now and we all miss him and his friendly attitude. Hope you come up again soon, Greg.

BOB HANEY, Atikokan, Ont.: Bob remembers well the time he walked into Ma 12, having completely forgotten that xxx chapter assignment.

LESLEA HANNA: Leslea has a few sugestions for PGSSS: Keep caf cleaner, more variety in food served, and there should be more things for the students to do during lunch hours. Well said!

LESLIE ANN HARDING, N. Vancouver: Leslie has no post high school plans, and found no courses interesting nor nothing enjoyable about PGSSS. She can usually be found in the smoke room. Hope your life is more enjoyable.

BETTY HARRIS, P.G.: Betty's post high school plans are to enjoy the summer. What about after that? She was a member of the school badminton club and came out faithfully every Tuesday night.

SANDY HARRIS: Sandy is one of the quiet minority of PGSSS. She can either be found in the back of the caf or behind the book shelves in the library. Hope you have a happy life. Good luck!

MARGIE HARRISON, New Westminster: Margie claims that she spends a great deal of time picking herself up off the floor. When she opens up her locker, she always gets knocked down. Stand on your own two feet Margie.

TIM HARRISON: Tim best remembers the time in the cafeteria when he was carrying a full tray of food and stumbled and fell. But no one noticed because his food fell among all the other garbage on the floor. Bitter memories!

SUSAN HARVEY: Susan can usually be found standing in the hall just outside the cafeteria. Her most memorable class was English 12 with a hot dog cross country skier for a teacher. Good luck Sue.

COLLEIN HAWS, P.G.: Colleen found the school dances "interesting". She also thinks they need more cops at the dances. She has no plans for after grad but she'll probably see a lot of Doug.

NORMAN HAWLEY: This handsome brute has the eyes of every girl in the school on him, but he's not interested. Norman, the annual club would like to give you a bit of advice. Get interested, fast!

LEO HERBERT, Grande Prairie, Alta.: Leo played volleyball with the school this year and kept up the team spirit. He is very interested in art and plans to go to an art school after he graduates. Good luck!

TRACEY HEPBURN: Tracey is a well known 'figure' in our school. Her future plans are as yet undecided but she plans to have a lot of fun.

BOB HERBERT, Williams Lake: Bob found the draughting courses most beneficial and to his taste. He plans to attend a technical school next year, that is if he passed GB 11.

LINDA HEAVYSIDES, Smithers: Linda was a member of the school volleyball team. She's an avid sports enthusiast and loves P.E. She'll always remember the math department, we hope.

MARY HIGHAM: Mary had a lot of fun times at PGSSS and a lot of hard times too. The thing she remembers most is that stupid coat that she slaved over in Textiles 12. Have a good life.

JIM HILLAND, New Westminster: Jim is well known for his practical jokes especially beaker switching in Chem 12. When not playing with test tubes or counting pendulum swings, he's at home or somewhere with Cathy.

PATSY HILLEN, New Westminster: Patsy very fondly remembers the cooking classes, but fresh on her mind are all the CR trips. Yet she still says that PGSSS is a very boring place. Hope the rest of your life is better.

EVA HINCHLIFFE, Quesnel: Eva was new this year but claims PGSSS suited her. She enjoyed most of her courses but claims that English teachers are crazy. She wants to go to UBC and become an optometrist.

KAREN HOARD, P.G.: Karen finds herself spending her weekends at home doing shorthand. Any boys around who would like to liven up the Friday nights for her? She hopes to become a legal stenographer.

SHARON HOFF, P.G.: Sharon has had a constant hassle with being late for homeroom. And that's why Sharon is no longer with us, she decided to quit. Now she's enjoying a life without hassles.

THERESA HOGAN: Here is another active member of our school. She can always be seen walking up and down the halls. And if that's not active, I don't know what is. Walk a good life Theresa!

JEANETTE HOLMES: Everyone knows Jeanette. She's the one with that great screaming laugh in the quiet cafeteria. And when she's not laughing she's smiling. Good luck Jeanette!

PAT HORNIBROCK, Vancouver: Pat can always be found in the library with his nose in books. I guess he's preparing for University next year. Have fun and good luck.

BEV HORSLEY, Vernon: Besides an exciting trip to London with the Heritage Hunters and a lot of hard work, Bev handled commerce courses well and plans to become an accountant.

CAROLE HOTELL, P.G.: Carole best remembers the fun she had this year in Drama 11 and the yearbook club. And she's sure glad that she doesn't have to write any more essays for Mr. Robertson. Good luck!

GARY HOUG: This wiz best remembers Chem. 12 and Math 12 because he got two answers wrong all year. Good luck Gary and keep up the good work.

STEPHANIE HOUGH, P.G.: Steph is one of the busiest girls in the school. If she's not running down the hall in a flurry, she's busy painting posters or attending meetings. PGSSS just wouldn't be right without her.

BOB HUBBARD, Toronto: Bob plans to travel and then possibly go back to school. He says he has no fond memories of PGSSS and that Drafting was the course he liked best. See you around Bob.

LETTY HUTCHINSON, Houma, Louisiana: Letty has just recently joined us in Canada from the U.S. She was an active member of the cheerleaders. Her future plan is to become a stewardess. Hope you make it.

DEBBIE HURLEY, P.G.: Deb says she'll miss PGSSS but will be glad to be finished. She especially remembers Chem 12, and the problems that went with it. See you at CNC next year.

JIM HUTCHISON, Pine Falls, Man.: Jim also says that he'll be sorry but happy to leave school. There were some pleasant memories for him, CR 12, Fds. 11, and the day before Xmas break. Will miss you Jim.

DIANA IRZINGER, P.G.: Diana plans to travel when she finishes school, when she'll use the languages she's slaved to learn. She best remembers Mr. Robertson's Geography class. Bonvoyage Diana!

JUDY IWASKOW: Judy remembers that swinging Xmas party she went to and how she was able to recover just in time to go to the New Year's party. Judy plans to travel when she graduates — if she graduates. Good Luck!

JIM JAMIESON: The most exciting thing that ever happened to Jim in his whole life was the discovery of hair. From that day on he let every single hair on his body grow and grow and grow.

COLLIN JANG, P.G.: Collin was a member of the all brain, Reach for the Top team. He also played on the school Volleyball team. Collin is going to be patriotic by touring Canada after Grad. Way to go Collin!

CHRISTINE JANSEN, Vancouver: Christine was a hard working Heritage Hunter, and was also on the students council. She plans to go to UBC next year and take psychology courses. Good luck!

NITA JANSEN: How did Nita's picture ever get put in here. By fate or by fluke she managed to get into the Grad class. Now tell us the truth Nita, are you or aren't you going to graduate this year.

HAROLD JANZEN, Regina, Sask.: Harold captained the Reach for the Top team and enjoyed absorbing culture in the library during his lunches. Harold will attend UBC next year with plans to become a psychologist.

MIKE JANZEN: Mike, we understand is a real electronics wiz. On weekends, Mike can always be found messing around with wires and such. To all grads who ever have electrical problems, just call Mike.

DORIS JOHNSON: Doris can always be seen in the corner of the cafeteria with her boyfriend. And when she's not with her own boyfriend she can be seen with someone else's boyfriend. Keep up the good work!

LINDA JOHNSON, Vancouver: Linda plans to travel to far off dream lands when she finishes school. Right now she's just getting through school having a good time and waiting. Have fun!

RENEE JOHNSON, Edson, Alta.: Renee spends much of her time painting and holds Mr. Siddal's philosophy. And we must say, she is a very good artist. She plans to become a nurse's aid in the future. Good luck!

ROB JOHNSON: Rob may not be very tall, but he sure is big with all the girls of the school. He makes all those tall guys green with envy. Hope your future is as bright as your school days were.

DAVID JOHNSTON, Edmonton, Alta.: David was a member of the PGSSS rep curling team. That's an honour he should hold on to. He hasn't decided his future yet, but I'm sure he'll keep on sweeping.

CAROL JONES, P.G.: Carol is a member of our dear annual club, and was also a Heritage Hunter. Her comment: "This has been the best school year I have had." speaks for alot of people. Thanks Carol.

DONELDA JONES, Tisdale, Sask.: Donelda, I think will always be remembered as one of the group that always sat on the north stairway. She enjoyed both art and foods this year. Have fun Donelda.

DONNA JONES, Tisdale, Sask.: Donna always spends her lunch hours at Di's playing cards with the rest of the gang. She has enjoyed textiles this year and plans to travel in the future. Good luck!

KAREN JONES: Karen is always rushing down the halls towards the girl's can to fix her hair or see if her make-up is messy. Maybe that's why she's one of the better looking girls of the school.

MARLENE JONES, Nanaimo: Marlene has had a very good year, enjoying both the teachers and the subjects. She plans to go into nursing or become an airline stewardess. Good luck and have fun.

KAREN JOUL-ANDERSON: This quiet blonde best remembers the fun and exciting time she had in Math 12 class. She is undecided in her future plans but she hopes to do a bit of travelling before she settles down to marriage.

BRIAN KAETLER: Anyone who took math should know this good looking guy. He was the math wiz with the slide ruler who sat at the front of the class and asked questions just to help everyone else out.

RON KEESON: Ron is the school joker. He can always be found in the library or the cafeteria entertaining other students with his jokes and tales of fantasy land. PGSSS is really going to miss you Ron.

SHARON KELLY, P.G.: Sharon worked on the grad committee and participated in CR 12. She says she will miss the "hall hangabout" when she finishes school, but she will leave behind peace and quiet.

JAMES KENDALL, Vancouver: James plans to become a commercial pilot and now spends a lot of his spare time flying. As can be expected, he's a physics fan, and probably a hard worker.

SHANE KENNEDY: Shane wasn't with us the last half of the year because he was enjoying himself in Brazil where he went on a student exchange programe. Well some of us are lucky.

JEFF KERBRAT, P.G.: Jeff has no idea what he wants to do with himself after grad. He's another person who is glad that he doesn't have to write any more essays for Mr. Robertson. Good luck Jeff.

WENDY KILAND, P.G.: Wendy says she thinks school's alright, but she has no fond memories of P.G.S.S.S. She refuses to go into the caf. Next year she just wants to get a job. Well Good Luck to you!

BEVERLY KINSEY, La Taque, Que.: Bev is very verbal, I mean vital addition to the yearbook staff and the Grad committee. She keeps us in stitches with tales of romance from her typing class. Good Luck!

DEBBIE KLINE, Calgary, Alta.: Debbie is one of the nicest persons in the school. Out of the goodness of her heart, she helped teach P.E. this year to handicapped children. Keep up the good work!

MIKE KNELL: You can always find Mike in the halls trying to imitate "Joe Cool". Why else do you think he grew that lovely bundle of hair under his sexy nose. Keep cool Mike.

DAVID KNIGHT, Ontario: David spends most of his time drinking. What he drinks, he doesn't say but we have a good idea. After Grad, he hopes to become a mechanic. Have fun in the grease.

MARIANNE KOCH, P.G.: Marianne sure is weird, she thinks that the caf. needs more chairs and more heat. Well, we agree fully with you. She hopes to go to college or become a ski bum. See you on the slopes!

DAN KOETINOFF, Trail: Dan's a real eater, and most fondly remembers Foods 11 and the cafeteria. He's one of the few avid basketball fans in the school. He plans to attend college next year. Good luck!

THEANO KOMAR, Saskatoon: Theano is a really active person in the school. She was a member of the ski club, dance committee, and pep club. She plans on attending college or going travelling. Have fun!

SYLVIA KORTVELYESSY: Sylvia can always be seen with a smile on her face, except when someone stumbles trying to say her last name. Her plans for the future is to have plenty of fun!

BUDDY KOSTENUIK, Benito, Man.: Buddy is another guy that drinks alot of Kool aid. He plans on working for a year or two and then hopes to return to further his education. Cheers Bud!

IVAN KOVACEVIC, Yugoslavia: Ivan is one of the few who believe in Mr. Reilly's theory that the world will soon blow up. So he's going to go travelling and see the world before it's too late.

JERRY KRAL, Lethbridge, Alta.: Jerry best remembers the fun times he had with the volleyball team. Next year he plans to work and/or go to Vocational School. Good luck and have fun.

STEVEN KRAUCHI: Steve plans on getting married to some rich lonely girl and then retire. He figures that with his good looks that he'll be getting married in July, and everyone is invited.

KATHY KRAUZ, P.G.: We doubt that Kathy will ever forget missing 25 Math 12 classes and still passing and neither will anyone else. She plans on travelling to Africa. Don't get lost in the jungle.

DOUG KREKLYVICH, Vilna, Alta.: Doug spends a good part of his time working on Bear - it's a railroad, and the rest at school girl watching. His future will probably involve electronics and more girls.

DON KRUSEL, P.G.: Don is the Photographer for the Annual. Most good photos in it are to his credit. He best remembers going up Purden at .2 mph in Chris's VW. Have fun at the University of Victoria.

LAUREL LAFERDY, Calgary, Alta.: Laurel plans to find a secretarial job in Penticton next year. She has been involved in commercial courses at school and she really enjoyed them. Good luck!

BILL LAMB, Nelson: Bill plans to go into forestry but he hasn't decided whether he wants to cut down trees or grow them. What ever you decide, we hope that you have fun in the bush.

FRANCES LAPOINTE, P.G.: Frances belonged to the annual club (rah rah) and the Heritage Hunters. She wants to leave home, travel and go to University in whatever order you like. Good luck!

RICHARD LAPP, P.G.: When Richard went to London with the H.H.ers he took along Beginning German so that he would understand the language. I wonder why he got lost in the back alleys. Better luck next time.

RANDY LARSON: Randy is one of the shy people that hide in the caf. or the library. But when Randy gets going, she can be a really fun person. Keep smiling.

RAYMOND LARSON, P.G.: Ray is a typical Grad of '74 in that he is looking for a nice slack job with good pay. You got alot of competition so we wish you luck.

LARRY LAVALEE: Everyone remembers when Larry ran down the gym floor. He was handling the basketball perfectly, he went up for the shot, his hair fell in front of his eyes and he missed.

KATHERINE LAW, P.G.: Kathy plans on becoming a nurse and wrapping up some tall handsome guy with bandaids and then carry him home. Make sure you don't wrap him too tight.

DON LAWRENCE, P.G.: Don's plans for the future is to graduate. He enjoyed Eng. 12 & Bi. 12 because he "learnt something". In the summer Don can be found in any lake that is big enough to hold him.

LEEAL LAWRENCE, N. Van.: Leaal got up enough nerve this year to go to her first dance and was smothered by all the boys who asked her for a dance. See you at the Inn, or the Canada, or the . . .

ROD LAWRENCE, P.G.: Rod's post high school plans centre around work. That's enough to hurt a guy. Like everyone else, he thinks the caf. has too few chairs.

PAT LEBEL: Pat can be found in the cafeteria or in the hall or in the smoke room. She seems to be everywhere and always with a smile on her face. Keep on truckin.

TONI LEBEL, Vancouver: Toni remembers working at Brownies and finding herself under a fish net. What is Brownies doing with a fish net and what is it doing over you. Tell us sometime.

RANDY LEDGERWOOD, Yellowknife, N.W.T.: Randy spends his summers soaking up all our lovely P.G. sunshine. If that's the case, why are you planning on going to California. We hope you don't turn Yank.

LORI LENNY: Lori passes his time at school playing cards in the cafeteria, but we hear that he plays a mean game, seeing he has a marked deck. Don't do that all your life, Lori.

PAT LENNIE: Pat best remembers Math 12 and Physics 12, but she sure blew a couple of her labs. After Graduation, Pat wants to go travelling and then maybe get married. Good luck!

LINDA LERUM, P.G.: Linda enjoys fresh water sports. She water-skies, goes camping and fishing, but not at the same time of course. Linda wants to work at a medical lab after grad.

RANDY LESTAGE: Randy best remembers coming to school one morning, half awake and trying to open his locker for half an hour, then realizing that he was at the wrong locker. C'est la vie.

CARLA LEWIS, Langley: Carla can always be found in the Secretarial Dept. of the school having fun behind the typewriter. And that's where she wants to stay after she graduates. Good luck!

DIANE LINDSTROM, San Jose, California: Diane is an active person in this school, she belongs to the Heritage Hunters, Drama Travel Club, and Swing choir.

PETER LINK, Holland: Peter spends most of his spare time playing Badminton, both at school and for the Raquets Club. This year he found the commercial courses most interesting. He plans to find a lazy office job.

DONNA LLOYD, Prince George: Lucky Donna. She got to take Math 11 twice and thus her like (or dislike) was double that of some of us. Donna's real ambition is not to take Ma 11 again, but to become a medical-stenographer.

MICHAEL LLOYD, Prince George: Michael lives on a ranch and he loves the great outdoors and the parties at other ranches. He would like to finish his education at UVic or Selkirk College. He spends a lot of time at Badminton.

SANDRA LLOYD, Prince George: Sandra enjoys horseback riding and skiing both on water and snow. Her plans for next year are to enter the School of Nursing at UBC. Biology 12 and Physics 11 have held her interest this year.

BART LOOIJEN, Holland: Bart is very interested in electrical work. He took both Physics and Electricity 12 courses to satisfy his curiosity this year. He plans to attend BCIT next year or go in to teaching.

EILEEN LUNDIN, Prince George: After living in Prince George for 17 years Eileen intends to travel and see the world. She is known for her like to have a good time all the time. Tell us about the world when you get back.

RANDI LUND, Churchill, Man.: Randi is a professional mud puddler and water fountain n in parader. This demands a great deal of skill and total concentration. Don't clap yet, Randi is very helpless in Mechanics. Now let's hear it.

DIANA LUPUL, Prince George: Diana plans to get a job so she can make some money, enough to travel around the world. Whenever you see Diana on the weekend please whisper to her. She'll probably be suffering from a hangover.

JACOB LUTHI: Jacob is a dark haired handsome devil, so take note girls. However he's really very shy. We have heard little or nothing about him, except that he hopes to graduate this June.

STAN LYLE, Vancouver: Stan will never make a politician for his theory is: "If you don't have anything good to say, keep quiet." So he plans to enter forestry. Stan's fondest memory is the day he passed a Math test.

DEBBIE MAIDES, Calgary: Debbie has vivid memories of the Math dept. She often went there for her test results only to find out she wished she hadn't. Debbie intends to go into Nursing and eventually become a physiotherapist.

WAYNE MADLAND: Wayne likes to stay away from school as much as he can, especially days when he has to fill in forms. Well we're glad you made it the day the photographer came and hope you come to collect your Diploma.

EUGENE MALAYKO, Prince George: Eugene was a member of the Boys Volleyball team this year. He also likes watching at the girl's Volleyball games, I wonder why? His future involves a trip across Canada.

KATHLEEN MALLIA, Prince George: Kathleen would rather spend all her time with Harvey. She has not found courses at PGSSS interseting and looks forward to leaving. Good luck with something more interesting.

VINCE MANFRED, Prince George: Vince works and plays and plays and works, but he doesn't say at what. He found CR 12B and the Industrial courses very interesting. He has no future plans.

CARL MANSFIELD: Carl is well known for being long winded both in speech and in the Swing Choir. He is a very conscientious flute player and a fairly important addition to the band. Good luck in the future.

MEIKE MANTAI, Germany: Meike is really put out by the way the students treat the Cafeteria. She feels that they aren't doing their part of the cleanup. She has found many courses interesting especially in the Community Services.

SUE MARCOUX: Sue has lived in Prince George for a great many years and looks forward to getting out of here. Her sole ambition this year is to get through grade 12.

RICHARD MARCH, Prince George: Richard is noted for being the only student in the school who enjoys the Cafeteria so much that he licks his plate clean. He hopes to go and try the food at the college and then Italy's dishes.

WENDY MARPLES, North Vancouver: Wendy intends to become a music teacher. Needless to say she does read music, which helps. Often you can find Wendy floating down the Nechako playing whatever it is she plays.

FERNANDO MARQUES, Azores: Fernando is undecided about his future but is sure he need not worry. He usually eats his lunch sitting on the floor or standing up because of the lack of chairs. Have a good summer.

LILLIE MARTENS, Quesnel: Lillie was one of the money hungry Heritage Hunters. She plans to attend college here and then go on to University. She is convinced that the Cafeteria should have a new Jukebox. Great Idea!

ROD MARTINSON, Prince George: Rod was a member of our school wrestling club and remembers watching the Math Dept. attempting to get in shape in the upper gym. The Medical field lies waiting for Rod.

JO-ANN MARTINSON, Prince George: Joanne is one of the few people in this world who enjoys the wonderful sport of bowling. She hopes to work next year. She enjoyed several courses this year and belongs to the Swing Choir.

NORMA MASSINI, Prince George: What would this school do without Norma's smile? It's just a part of her friendly style. She has no post high school plans but will probably end up with an exciting future. Good Luck.

GAETANO MAURO: Gaetano likes to loiter in the halls watching members of the opposite sex stroll by. An avid soccer player he hopes to become the captain of the Labatts Soccer Team.

MARVIN MEIER, Princeton: Marvin wants to work for a year then go to a technical school. He claims that he has no fond memories of PGSSS, but we'll bet he does. He spends a great deal of time in the library absorbing knowledge.

CHRIS MERCIER: Chris likes to make jokes in Mr. Swennumson's English 12 class. The thing he remembers most about English is getting zero out of ten on several two page essays. Well good luck in your literary future.

LINDA MEYER: This blonde haired sweetheart is one of the kindest people in our school. Unfortunately very few people have had the chance to run into her.

ANGELIKA MICKLEY, Berlin: Angelika enjoys spending her lunch hours outside around the motorcycles and cars. In the summer she can be found water skiing or playing tennis. Good luck in your career as an interpreter.

DEBBIE MICHAUD, Prince George: Debbie plans to work at her present job full time next year. She believes that the Cafeteria is a wonderful place. Her fondest memories are of English 12 and Law 11.

DEBBIE MIDDLETON, Victoria: Debbie doesn't seem to like Prince George very much. Right after Grad she plans on going back to Winnipeg. What's it got that P.G. doesn't? We hate to see you go but we wish you luck.

SHERI MIERS: Sheri likes to waste time in the Cafeteria gossiping with all her cronies. She, we believe, has enjoyed many of the Community Service's courses over the last two years. We wish you the best in the future.

WESTON MILLER, Prince George: Weston has found comfort in the Cafeteria and the smokeroom this year and enjoyed both, especially when he's sleeping. Hang on to that skidoo you may need it when Autoplan bans all cars.

DEBBIE JUNE MOMBOUQUETTE, Edmonton: Debbie June is rather peeved with the seating arrangement in the Cafeteria and would like the jukebox turned up. Her post high school plans are to work and to keep on smoking.

ROBERT MINCHIN, New Westminster: We can all remember Robert as our hero on the school volleyball team. He doesn't have any plans for the future, probably just waiting for some chick to come by.

STEVE MITCHELL, Quesnel: Steve plans to fly after grad. Planes that is. Who knows, Steve may be the first man to singlehandedly fly backwards across the Atlantic with one hand tied behind his back.

ERIC MOEN, Prince George: Eric was one of the Class of '74's Heritage Hunters. He enjoyed Lit 12, mostly the trip to London, and History. Eric is frequently found shadowing the pool hall doorways much to Tracey's distaste.

JON MOEN, Prince George: When not communing in the hall or tinkering in Electricity Jon can be found in the Cafeteria where he believes the food is not bad for the price. Right you are Jon, thanks to the hardworking cooks.

RICHARD MOGENSEN, Prince George: Richard seems to have caught on a good idea. His chief ambition is to get paid for doing nothing. He says that he can't wait to get out of PGSSS. Have fun doing nothing, Richard.

CYNTHIA MONSON, Saskatchewan: Why do you eat lunch at home, Cynthia? Could it be for that certain someone's call? We hope you tell him more about yourself than you told us. Have a good life.

DEBBIE MOONEY: Debbie is one person who you can almost always find with a smile on her face or a joke on the tip of her tongue. The world needs more people like you Debbie, so keep up the good work.

LAURIE MOORHOUSE, Prince George: Laurie spends most of her lunch hours at her boyfriend's house but still finds the Cafeteria a good social centre. She plans to work next year and then . . . who knows.

IVAN MORRIE: Ivan is a very hard worker in the Industrial courses. He is well known for proficiency in Electricity and other related fields. We wish you the best of luck for a successful future.

BOB MORRIS: Bob has been known in this school for several years and has managed to get in the High School Annual more times than anybody else we know. We hope you make it this year, because this is your last write up, Bob.

TOM MORTON, Prince George: Tom wants to join the air force where he will be half as free as the birds. If sometime in the next few years you find a jet buzzing around you, don't fret it's probably only Tom.

ALBERT MOTIUK, Vegreville, Alta.: Albert, after putting up with bad food all year, will most likely be glad to leave PGSSS. Good luck in college Albert. Maybe the food will be better there.

DONNA MULTHAUF, Riverside, Calif.: Donna was one of our sexy cheerleaders. She hopes to further her artistic abilities next year by going to Art School. Her artwork was a great asset to the Grad Committee. Good Luck.

CHRISTAL MONSEN, Vernon: Horses are one of Christal's pastimes. She enjoyed Law 11 this year especially the trips to the courts. Next year she plans to travel across Canada.

SUSAN MURIOU: Susan can usually be seen waiting for a certain someone by his locker. I think this must have been a happy year for Susan because I don't believe that we've ever seen her without a smile on her face.

MARK MUTZ, Prince George: Mark feels that many courses were beneficial to him but that none were interesting. He claims he can be found anywhere but on the ski hills.

PAUL MUTZ, Prince George: Paul plays, rather well, the squeezebox. To you who know nothing of music that means accordion. Biology 12 was the course that Paul found most interesting this year. Good Luck.

GLADYS MYCOCK: Gladys will graduate, hopefully, on the Commercial programme. She has had a good time the last two years, mostly when not in class, but half the fun is seeing how many classes you can skip, isn't it Gladys?

IAN McARTHUR: Ian has remained almost unknown to us this year but we did manage to find out his name so that at least his presence is recorded.

VONDA MacCREA, Vonda can often be seen walking the halls as if she is waiting for something. Wonder what. Maybe someday Vonda will reveal some of her secrets, she didn't tell us much. You secretive devil.

KAREN McDERMID, Prince George: Secretarial work is the career Karen is interested in. She found office orientation very helpful especially when she got to go out on the job for a week. We wish you the best in your future work.

JOHN MacDONALD, Edson, Alta.: John seems to have found PGSSS a very dreary place. His most prominent memory is P.E. 11. But we're sure that all his life he'll look back and remember little things that didn't seem important.

APRIL MacDONALD, Prince George: April has lived in P.G. for the past 11 years and she has loved every minute. She hopes to live the rest of her days in the Spruce Capital and that is all that she has planned for the future.

KATHY McDONNELL, Prince George: Kathy was another hard working Heritage Hunter. She was also an important addition to the Grad Committee. She works at the Happy Face and plans to have fun after she graduates.

ED McEWEN, Langley: Ed is well noted for driving the Blue Flash to school. He enjoys CR and Gym night because he likes to get into floor hockey fights. In his near future he plans to travel abroad. That means overseas, not girls.

LESLIE McEWAN, Chemainus: Leslie says she really does have a lot of fond memories of PGSSS. She enjoys skiing and making a fool of herself in Acting 12 with DJ. With no plans for the future she plans to have a good time.

LOU MacCORMACK: Lou is a saucy little redheaded chick. She loves to flounce into Mr. Gordon's SS11 class when his homeroom is still in the room. A girl in a hurry! Good Luck, Lou.

DWIGHT McFARLAND, Prince George: Dwight is well noted for playing on the school Soccer team under the watchful eye of Mr. Hanik.

SHARON McFARLANE, Vancouver: Sharon is known by everybody for her four letter friend getters. It can get bad during Tx 11 when she has to start picking out a mistake. She plans to travel after she graduates.

DEBBIE McGILL, Stayton, Ore.: Debbie is one who can make you think. She almost always has something worthwhile to say. She has enjoyed History 12 and English 12. Good luck next year at Bible College.

VERA McINTOSH, New Westminster: Vera lives in Hixon, and we hear she has some wild weekends there. But guys, forget her, because she tells us that she wants to stay single as long as possible. Have Fun.

BILL McINTYRE: Bill was only with us one semester this year, catching up on the courses that he didn't get last year. His ambition was to graduate and he did! Congratulations.

LARRY McKAY: Larry is brainy in Biology. He takes great pride in getting some of the highest and some of the lowest marks ever recorded. Those low marks usually showed up on Chem 12 exams.

DEBRA McKENZIE, Vancouver: Talented Debra has spent most of her time in the Art rooms. Her future plans are for Art School and extensive travel. She enjoys spending her weekends expressing herself in art or sewing.

KIM McKENZIE, Winnipeg: Kim's two ambitions are to make a million and retire, and then to become a Dad. Kim can be found almost anywhere: staring at the mess in his locker, in the can combing his hair, or standing in water.

DAVE McKIBBON: Dave is a shy secretive guy so girls you really have to try hard. He likes to see how many classes he can miss before getting kicked out of the course. Good Luck in the future.

LESLIE McKINNON, Prince George: Leslie thinks that the Cafeteria is kind of noisy and too crowded. She feels that none of her courses were beneficial to her. Leaving the school with no qualms she has no future plans.

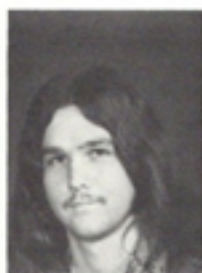

STUART McKIRDY, Jasper, Alta.: Stuart has a good comment for the Cafeteria, "Well worth it". He enjoyed Mx. 11 because he felt it was useful. You sound like you want to get the most out of life. Great!

DOUG McLAREN, Cranbrook: Doug's memories include C.R. and English with Mr. Creek. He's one of those shy guys who spends his lunch hours in the library. Doug hopes to go on to College or University. Good Luck.

CHERYL McLEAN: Cheryl is a shy brunette who wanders aimlessly about the school in search of something to do. We hear you are a super seamstress. Keep up the good work.

DARRELL McLEAN, Whitemouth, Man.: Darrell's fondest memory was seeing his Chem 12 class for the last time. However there were good times chatting in the chem lab during lunch. Good luck at UVic.

WILL McMARTIN: Will's favorite hobby is neglecting to fill out any sort of questionnaire he might be handed. His second favorite hobby is seeing how little time he can spend at school and still pass.

SUSAN McMULLEN, Vanderhoof: Susie can usually be found in the Cafeteria or smoke room but sometimes she goes to class. Languages are her favorite and she plans to go to Europe Soon. Have a good time.

WENDY McPHEE, Prince George: Wendy enjoys spending most of her time in the smoke room and as little as possible in her classes. Nevertheless, she's going to be able to walk down the aisle and collect her diploma.

DAN McQUAIG, Vancouver: Dan is the best school hater in PGSSS. He compares Mr. Rodger to Joseph Stalin. Dan almost dies everytime he steps into the Caf and goes chair hunting. Good Luck at B.C.I.T.

FRANK NAGY, Hungary: Frank found Bi 12 very interesting. That pig made him work. The one he dissected of course. He enjoys skiing and having fun. Well, Good Luck at University.

VALERIE NEAL, Prince George: Valerie can't remember what she participated in this year except dragging herself to Bookkeeping 11. She plans to travel next year to Europe.

DAAN NELSON, Ottawa: Dan can usually be found wandering the halls or reading by his locker. He enjoyed English this year because he really wants to become grammatical. Europe is his goal for next winter.

LINDA NAETH, Prince George: Linda has found almost all her courses great, and she has a proverb for those whose weren't. "For the school year to be enjoyable it is up to the student to make it so." Well said.

MICHELE NEWELL, Timber Bay: Michele plans to take a two year Early Childhood Education course and become a Kindergarten teacher. She's sure her experience in CC 12 will be beneficial to her then.

ROSEMARY NIEKE, Prince George: Rosemary is a very quiet mite, but when you know her, quite a sprite. Her post highschool plans are just to work. You've been doing work for a couple of years now, and know what it's like.

DOUG NORBERG, Nelson: Doug's whole life revolves around Basketball and a certain red-headed cheerleader. You can usually find him in the Polar's room or practising. Good Luck at CNC next year.

DENNIS NORDLI: Dennis is a very conscientious lad when he puts his mind to it, which isn't terribly often. His primary ambition is to graduate and then he'll think about the future. Have fun at what ever you do.

PEGGY NORTON, Prince George: Peggy is known for her saying exactly what she thinks; and she thinks the Cafeteria is a MESS. She's found most of her courses good but plans to travel before using her knowledge.

DAVE OSBORNE, Port Alberni: Dave claims that he has no fond memories of this school but I'll bet he does. He plans to become a fulltime Minister of Jehovah's Witnesses. Lot's of Luck.

LYNN OBST, Edmonton: Lynn can be found anywhere but the Cafeteria. Well known for her participation in the organization of sports, she has been an asset to the school. We wish you Luck at Vancouver City College next year.

ROXANE OLESIU, Jasper: Roxane can be found chasing boys or talking to the dogs at lunch. Better shape up boys, she says not one of you is her type. Have fun on your trip across Canada.

BARRY OLIVER, New Westminster: Barry's ambition after high school is to work in the bush and go to parties on weekends. Somewhere along the line Barry got the idea that PGSSS was boring. Now I wonder where he got that idea?

RANDY OLLENBERGER, Pouce Coupe: After a hard year of work, namely Physics, Math, and Chemistry Randy has decided to go to BCIT for a two year program. He also is convinced that the Cafeteria just can't beat his mother's cooking.

CAROLYN OLSEN, Montreal: This year's Valedictorian has been involved in many school activities even though she's only been here for 1 year. She has helped the Student Council, Dance Committee, Swing Choir, and Drama Travel Club.

PAULENE OLSON, Prince George: Pauline is a very shy secretive girl. She didn't tell us much, except that she liked English 11 with Mrs. White, and looks forward to working next year.

RENA ORDELL, Fort St. John: Rena was involved in Bible studies this year, on Tuesdays and Thursdays during lunch. When asked what her post high school plans were she answered, "God only knows." Keep the Faith, Rena.

TIM ORR, Calgary: Coming from the old Stampede country, Tim is very active but like every original cowboy still holds down a job. Skiing, snowshoeing, fishing, and canoeing take a lot of his time, but flying takes the most.

SHELSON ORSER, Prince George: Sheldon apparently has no thoughts on school or what he'd like to do when he graduates. His most common answer when asked a question is, "No comment."

MARY DRYDZUK, Prince George: Mary is a very creative person. She enjoyed her art and design courses this year very much. Being outdoors is very important to her as she likes skidooring and hiking. Good Luck at college.

DEREK OSWELL: Derek enjoys slowly ambling down the halls and arriving late to his classes. He well remembers getting kicked out of a bar by a certain chemistry teacher.

JIM OSWELL: Jim, the well known brother of Derek also remembers getting kicked out of a bar. However he also remembers getting back at that certain teacher by doing the old beaker switch. Congratulations on those A labs.

TRUDY PAGE, Comox: Trudy can most often be found in Mrs. Deas Textiles room sewing or managing. She likes to hang around the halls in her other spare time and hopes to become a Dental Assistant in the near future.

JANIS PAJN, Prince George: This bright young lady lives for her horses and spends every spare moment with them. Janis hopes to eventually train and show horses but for now plans to become a Veterinarian Assistant.

KAREN PARKER: Karen is very proficient at remaining inconspicuous and has given us a very trying time attempting to find her out. Sorry Karen but we found you out. Good Luck in the future.

COLIN PATTERSON: Colin can usually be found in the smoke room or gallantly stalking the halls. His ambition is to graduate from school and continue to reject all information sheets.

GAIL PATTERSON: This Brunette with her flowing hair can be seen a mile away if you're looking. Gail spends a great deal of her time in the library absorbing knowledge. Good Luck in the future Gail.

JANIE PATTERSON, Montana, U.S.A.: Janie is a high spirited cheerleader who has done much to lift our school out of its apathy. She spends a lot of her time in the Polar room or practising cheers. Keep up the good Spirits.

PATTY PATTERSON: Patty will always remember Grad Weekend and the good time she had. She really has had a good time all year. Every once in a while school demanded a little effort and she will collect her diploma.

NAOMI PAUL: Naomi is a very quiet girl. She likes to bury herself in the library. This year has been a real experience for her, a lot of hard work, but well worth it. Good luck Naomi.

JIM PAULSON, Prince George: This Bob Dylan freak spent most of his time blowing his mouth-harp in various parts of the school. Jim's big ambition in life is to own a car and catch a certain chick (L.S.).

JIM PAVICH: This handsome devil is very secretive so you are going to have to work hard girls. He didn't tell us which courses he liked, which he did not like or what he is going to do next year.

RANDY PAWLICK, Vernon: Randy plans to spend 5 years at University after Grad. His weekend activities range from the education of the pool hall to the physics of the golf course. Take it easy at University Randy.

ALLAN PEACOCK, Prince George: Most of Allan's life revolves around work — which kind? Although he hung around the cafeteria and hallways a lot, he did get to a few classes. Mechanics seemed to be his favourite.

ELAINE PEARSON: This good looking student likes to spend a lot of her time doing nothing, she admits it doesn't seem like nothing at the time, but at the end of her spare she has not accomplished a thing.

ROGER PELLETIER, St. Anne, Man.: The clouds and pollution of the smoke room are one of Roger's fond memories. He spends his lunch hours at Lakewood, I wonder why? He plans to make his interest in Electronics his occupation.

JACK PEREIRA: Jack likes to spend all his spare time in the cafeteria, smoke-room, or as far away from the school as possible. He is thinking of working for awhile and then travelling. Have a good time.

MARJ PERIGO: Marj is most well know for her guy. They can usually be found anywhere during lunch. She fondly remembers several of the school dances. She does not know what she is going to do next year. Good luck.

KEITH PERLEY: Even without a lunch hour, this H.H. managed to squeeze in badminton and curling on the side. During the weekends Keith can be found doing his Physics or playing tennis. Good luck at UBC Keith.

HEATHER PERRAULT, Summerland: This musical brainchild is usually always on the go. Besides band and choir tours, she has travelled across Canada with the Young Voyageurs, and to England with the H.H. Good luck busy Heather.

DEBBIE PESSERL, Vernon: Debbie does not have anything good to say about the cafeteria (who does). She really enjoyed Mrs. Chatham's typing classes and found Eng 11 and 12 were helpful. She plans to become a dermatologist.

JEFF PICK, Queen Charlotte Islands: Jeff belongs in the Grade 11 section, but got stuck here. Jeff was the capable manager of our soccer team.

TOM PICK, Queen Charlotte Islands: Tom was another of our star soccer players. He is well known for his jokes and his chick. He found Physics 11 the most interesting of his courses. With no plans for the future we wish you luck.

MERV PIDHERNY, Smithers: Merv spent most of his time at parties and dances, and drinking behind the weigh scales. Industrial Power was his favourite subject. He plans to become an autobody apprentice after grad.

BERT PIGHIN, Port Alberni: Bert's favourite place is not PGSSS. He plans to get away from school upon graduation. Lunch, Electronics and Electricity are his favourite times of the day, there he can do what he likes.

JANE PLANTE: Jane likes to spread her high spirits and good will. She is rarely to be found without a smile on her face. Who was it who said that a smile is the most precious gem on earth.

MARGARET POCOCK, Prince George: Although Margaret didn't participate in any school activities this year, she did enjoy her classes in Child Care and Commerce. After Grad Marg plans to work.

LAUREL POHL: Laurel was involved with the Heritage Hunters and travelled to London. Her most fond memories of this year were the free nights they had in London. Good luck next year Laurel.

DIANA POSNIK: Diana is very quiet and shy. She would not let us print any information about her. We know that all the rest of her life she will look back to her happy times at school. Good luck Diana.

PIETER POSTMA: Pieter remembers this year for all the hard work that has gone into those good grades on his transcript. He plans to go to UBC and become a Structural Engineer. Lots of luck.

LORI POWER, Prince George: Besides raising money for the H.H. trip to London, Lori was also on the Grad Committee. She enjoyed Lit 12 but thought some of the Math dept.'s tactics were unfair. She plans to go into Medicine.

ALLANE PREECE, Prince Albert: Allane put a lot of effort into her H.H. Literature 12 course . . . and then did not make it to England. Too bad. Future plans include travelling, though. Now she enjoys holding up the walls.

IAN PRIDEAUX, Duncan: Ian spends his weekends "working and partying". He liked the G.B. courses and found that biology rooms are quite interesting. He is usually located in the gym or caf, and plans to go to CNC next year.

ROMAIN PRIMUS: Romain calls the halls his domain. He loves to stand in them and watch people walk by. He does not have any immediate plans for the future so will be satisfied to watch people.

GEORGE PRINCE, Alberta: George is a future playboy. George spends his time keeping in shape for the girls, sitting in the cafeteria looking at the girls, or at the lake looking at the girls. Good luck at your profession.

JOE PRINCE, High Prairie, Alta.: Joe can often be found in the caf at lunch but he still says that there are not enough chairs. He is very interested in Automotives and will pursue this at the college next year.

SUSAN PROZELLER, Vancouver: Bobby Fisher look out! Here comes Susan, who spends her lunch hours in the chess room. She likes dining, dancing, and active outdoor sports, which include throwing snowballs. Best of luck Sue.

BROCK PROZENIULE, Salmon Arm: Brock plans to go to college after graduation. Usually found in the library, this male enjoyed English and Physics. Physical Education also brings back "fond" memories for Brock.

LOREN PULLMAN, Prince George: Loren enjoys sleeping — and that is about it. After graduation he plans to work. As for school, — "what's that?" Hope you make it through the Valedictory Ceremonies without falling asleep, Loren.

RONALD QUINES, Philippines: Ron, a newcomer to Prince George has found some things difficult here but says he is catching on. He plans to go to College next year, probably specializing in math, his favorite. Good luck.

ANN RAHN: Ann has done very well in the Commercial department. She plans to go into secretarial work after graduation. She has many fond memories of PGSSS and will remember her days here forever.

BARB RANDT, Prince George: English was most beneficial to Barb and she plans to attend college in the future. Barb is usually not found during lunch, probably because the caf is too crowded and noisy.

ANN RASMUSSEN, Prince George: Ann found bookkeeping and accounting the most beneficial of her courses. "They give you a better job than a typist." She plans to work for awhile and then get married.

KARIN RASMUSSEN, Prince George: Karin enjoys being outside in the spring and summer. She plans to go to university, but not for at least a year. She says that PGSSS was fun but she wants to get out in the world. Have fun.

PETER RASMUSSEN, Oregon: This profane yankee plans to be a cop. A motorcycle cop I would imagine. He found many of the science courses very interesting. Well good luck, remember all your friends at PGSSS, and don't bust them.

BOB RAMSAY, Edmonton: Bob usually eats lunch in the cafeteria or at MacDonald's. He does not think his weekends are any of our business. Bob wants to travel when he leaves "the institution".

DON RAMSAY: Don is a friendly face in the school and is well known for being sincere. He has liked this past year but is glad to be leaving school at last. Good luck in your future.

HOWARD RAMSAY: Howard is just a little tyke but he can get into the biggest scapes with his practical jokes. If you are looking for fun, trouble, or a laugh, just find Howard. He'll be in the caf.

BARRY REID, Edmonton: Barry is a member of the Drama Travel Club and went to Victoria with the group. When not putting on a show Barry can be found on the Ski slopes watching ski bunnies.

DIANA REID, Vancouver: Diana states that "Life is the most interesting subject". A member of the grad committee, she wants to go to college and then travel. On weekends Diana can be found riding her horse.

KAREN REIMER, Abbotsford: Karen remembers the day that Mrs. Gardner fell off her chair. Drafting and Child Care were two of her favorites — besides lunch. Karen plans to become an interior decorator.

SYLVIA REINHART: Sylvia is not often to be found at school as she has interests elsewhere. When she is at school she will be in the smoke room, cafeteria and occasionally in class.

ROBYN RENWICK, Vancouver: Robyn enjoys reading novels anywhere, any time, and thus loved English 11 and 12. On weekends she usually finds some lazy activity or just sits around.

IAN RICE, Vancouver: Ian enjoys skiing and cycling on the weekends. He claims that the Math Department is the only one he has a beef against. Wonder why? He can usually be found in the cafeteria at lunch.

MILES RICE, Prince George: This H.H. enjoyed Mr. Bacon's lectures but that's about it. His remarks about the cafeteria are too numerous to mention. Miles plans to travel and go to university. Good luck Miles.

PENNY RICKETT: Penny has a good two years at PGSSS. She remembers the good times at the school dances and parties afterward. She has no future plans yet, but will always have a good time.

ROBYN RIDLER: Robyn likes to try and fool everybody. He likes to play scholar. You can often find him buried in books in the library hopelessly attempting to understand them.

KAREN RIGLER, Prince George: Karen, a Heritage Hunter, found the Lit 12 course very interesting (she loves history). Her future plans include more travelling, although work is more predominate right now.

BRYCE ROHN: What do you say about a guy with a long blonde hairy beard and a blank grad information sheet. All we know is that he is a very happy person and that he's glad to be finishing school.

CAL ROBERTS: Cal is a very conscientious student and works very hard for his grades. He did not say what his plans for next year are or what his long range goal is. Good luck in what ever you go into.

GEORGE ROBERTS: George remembers way back in grade 11 to Mr. Southam's SS 11 class. He remembers good ole Lyle, and the baseball games against Mr. Creak's class. Always full of jokes, George is a lot of fun.

SANDY ROBERTS, Prince George: Sandy wants to raise quarter horses, and is usually riding them (with her boyfriend, Donny) during the weekends. Her loves are volleyball and softball.

JOHN ROBERTSON, Prince George: John skis, (who doesn't these days), parties, works, and sleeps; very normal. He likes loud juke boxes, and Physics 11 and 12. He has no future plans yet.

DANIEL ROBIN, Edmonton: Dan thinks the classes are too large and that we need more teachers at PGSSS. He was a faithful member of the student's council and plans to become an apprentice at something.

LESLIE ROGERS, Prince George: Leslie was our Student's Council president for a while this year. Unfortunately things did not go too well and she was forced to leave school for a rest. Good luck Leslie.

CHRIS ROHRMOSER, Campbell River: Chris is the school cartoonist. He can often be found in the Art rooms. Chris has come a long way in the last two years he graduated from a kit bowtie to a full length tie. Congratulations.

BILL ROSE, Salmon Arm: Bill is a very dedicated chess fan and spends most of his spare time pursuing this hobby. Bill remembers all the hard work that he put into Physics 12. Good luck at university next year.

ROBERT ROUX, Bonneyville, Alta.: Robert is another avid PGSSS smokeroom fan. When he cannot be found there he will be in the caf eating, or in the library studying. He likes to just drive around looking for something to do.

KAREN ROW, Calgary: Karen participated in dances, an occasional pep rally, and a few classes this year. Like all of us, she spends her weekends in various places and her lunch hours in the caf, library, or smoke room.

TIM ROY: Tim is another one of those who is hoping just to squeak through and get his graduation requirements. He fondly remembers the Industrial Arts department. Good luck Tim.

JADRANKA RUPIC, Yugoslavia: Jadranka can usually be found during her lunch hour working industriously in the library. She plans to attend UBC and become a Physical Therapist. Lots of luck, Jadranka.

ELIZABETH RUSTAD: Elizabeth will always remember running around with Bob in English 12. She had a great time running Mr. Swen . . . in circles. She plans to become a Home Economist at UBC.

BOB RUTHERFORD, Prince George: Bob believes that the whole rotten school system has hit bottom. He believes that the only thing that the math department teaches is perfect attendance. Best wishes, Streak!

BOB SABISTON, Vancouver: Bob had a great time this year in physics and chemistry. Many long hours were spent on physics labs during first semester and more hours studying for scholarships the second semester. Good luck.

ARNE SAHLEN, Prince George: Arne is well known as a fantastic pianist. He is a member of the Drama Travel Club. Everyone will remember Arne as the Marrying Sam of our Sadie Hawkins Dance. Thank you Arne Dearest.

MURRAY SALES, Prince George: Murray remembers well many hard hours of work on physics. He was usually with the rest of the physics class skipping out, studying in the library just before a test.

HARBANS SALL: Harban is a newcomer to our school, but has fitted in with everyone else. He finds this school quite different but very enjoyable. Good luck in the future.

KEN SALTER: Ken is known for loitering in the halls looking for something. What are you looking for Ken? He is very glad to finally be finished school. We wish you the best.

ELIZABETH SAMPLE, Vancouver: Elizabeth detests the cafeteria and thus spends much of her time in the library. She likes any outdoor recreational sports. A Heritage Hunter, she wants to go to Nursing school after graduation.

SANDY ROBERTS, Prince George: Sandy wants to raise quarter horses, and is usually riding them (with her boyfriend, Donny) during the weekends. Her loves are volleyball and softball.

JOHN ROBERTSON, Prince George: John skis, (who doesn't these days), parties, works, and sleeps; very normal. He likes loud juke boxes, and Physics 11 and 12. He has no future plans yet.

DANIEL ROBIN, Edmonton: Dan thinks the classes are too large and that we need more teachers at PGSSS. He was a faithful member of the student's council and plans to become an apprentice at something.

LESLIE ROGERS, Prince George: Leslie was our Student's Council president for a while this year. Unfortunately things did not go too well and she was forced to leave school for a rest. Good luck Leslie.

CHRIS ROHRMOSER, Campbell River: Chris is the school cartoonist. He can often be found in the Art rooms. Chris has come a long way in the last two years he graduated from a kit bowtie to a full length tie. Congratulations.

BILL ROSE, Salmon Arm: Bill is a very dedicated chess fan and spends most of his spare time pursuing this hobby. Bill remembers all the hard work that he put into Physics 12. Good luck at university next year.

ROBERT ROUX, Bonneyville, Alta.: Robert is another avid PGSSS smokeroom fan. When he cannot be found there he will be in the caf eating, or in the library studying. He likes to just drive around looking for something to do.

KAREN ROW, Calgary: Karen participated in dances, an occasional pep rally, and a few classes this year. Like all of us, she spends her weekends in various places and her lunch hours in the caf, library, or smoke room.

TIM ROY: Tim is another one of those who is hoping just to squeak through and get his graduation requirements. He fondly remembers the Industrial Arts department. Good luck Tim.

JADRANKA RUPIC, Yugoslavia: Jadranka can usually be found during her lunch hour working industriously in the library. She plans to attend UBC and become a Physical Therapist. Lots of luck, Jadranka.

ELIZABETH RUSTAD: Elizabeth will always remember running around with Bob in English 12. She had a great time running Mr. Swen . . . in circles. She plans to become a Home Economist at UBC.

BOB RUTHERFORD, Prince George: Bob believes that the whole rotten school system has hit bottom. He believes that the only thing that the math department teaches is perfect attendance. Best wishes, Streak!

BOB SABISTON, Vancouver: Bob had a great time this year in physics and chemistry. Many long hours were spent on physics labs during first semester and more hours studying for scholarships the second semester. Good luck.

ARNE SAHLEN, Prince George: Arne is well known as a fantastic pianist. He is a member of the Drama Travel Club. Everyone will remember Arne as the Marrying Sam of our Sadie Hawkins Dance. Thank you Arne Dearest.

MURRAY SALES, Prince George: Murray remembers well many hard hours of work on physics. He was usually with the rest of the physics class skipping out, studying in the library just before a test.

HARBANS SALL: Harban is a newcomer to our school, but has fitted in with everyone else. He finds this school quite different but very enjoyable. Good luck in the future.

KEN SALTER: Ken is known for loitering in the halls looking for something. What are you looking for Ken? He is very glad to finally be finished school. We wish you the best.

ELIZABETH SAMPLE, Vancouver: Elizabeth detests the cafeteria and thus spends much of her time in the library. She likes any outdoor recreational sports. A Heritage Hunter, she wants to go to Nursing school after graduation.

LAURIE SANDBERG: Laurie has enjoyed the past year but is greatly looking forward to her future without the burdens of school. We wish you the best of luck.

CAROL SCHLITT, Prince George: Carol has become an expert seamstress by indulging in Textiles A and B. She usually spends her lunch hours in the textiles room. Have a good time at Bible School next year.

RICHARD SCHLITT, Prince George: Richard is quite upset at the closure of the cafeteria as he likes to spend all his free time in the morning and during the day sitting in the caf. He plans to go to Bible School next year.

ALLEN SCHMALITZ, Alberta: Allan is very active in community outdoor sports, he has enjoyed hockey, X-Country Skiing, and snowshoeing this winter with the C.R. class.

ELAINE SCHULTZ, Prince George: The highlight of Elaine's year was spelling "Mr. Rodger" wrong on an official letter. She plans to become a secretary, in the near future. Good luck, and don't make too many mistakes.

DAVID SCHWARTZ, Prince George: David is a real education nut, and he explains that by eliminating courses and having more lunches and studies, we might learn something about living. He'd also like to be able to ride inside.

KAREN SCHWEDA, Prince George: Karen claims that she has a lot of memories of this school but they are not fond. She found Office Orientation so beneficial that she quit half way through. Best wishes next year.

DORIS SCOTT, Alberta: Forkner Shorthand with Mrs. Chatham was a real gas for Doris. She doesn't know what she'd like to do when she grows up and thus has decided to bum around for a year.

KELLY-ANN SCULLY, Quesnel: Kelly is a member of the Drama Club and the Annual Club. Between school, working, and Greg, Kelly has very little spare time. She wants to go to UVic for seven years to become a counsellor.

LORNE SCULLY: Lorne can usually be found in some obscure corner with a certain P.H. He has had a very good year this year but looks forward to collecting his diploma.

DAVID SETTERLUND, Quebec City: Dave remembers well the bubble gum chewing episode in Typing. He also had to put up with more than one admirer this year. At lunch you can often find him telling jokes in the cafeteria.

FRANK SEEMAN, Chilliwack: Frank's biggest beef is the school system. He likes the cafeteria and the smoke room very much, but the rest... His post high school plan is simply to go to work.

CINDY SENKPIEL, Prince George: Cindy has had to work rather hard for this year as she attacked the physics department. Watch out for loose kinematics carts. Everyone will remember Cindy for her morbid sense of humor.

DAN SEXSMITH: Dan has tried to remain anonymous this year but we finally tracked him down. Unfortunately we didn't find out much about him. We do know however that he'll be glad to be finished school.

LAURA SEXSMITH, Quesnel: Laura was a member of the crazy Heritage Hunters and went tramping off to London to hunt her heritage. She plans to work for six months and then go to college. Best of luck.

DEBBIE SHANNON, Squamish: Debbie was an H.M. member this year. She has liked her automotive course the best of all her studies. She was also a superficial member of the Annual Club. Good luck, kiddo.

BRIAN SHAW: Brian has worked very hard this year and we hope that he has learned all that he set out to learn. He does not know what he wants to do next year at this time, but he'll probably think of something worthwhile.

DEBORAH SHAWARA, Jasper: Deb has enjoyed Community Rec this year very much. She feels that it is a very worthwhile course for anyone to take. She plans to go to the Vocational School next year.

CINDY SHIPLEY, Birch River, Man.: Cindy says she can usually be found anywhere, and that she plans to travel during next year. Her biggest peeve about the school is the lack of chairs in the cafeteria. You're right.

KEVIN SHORT: Kevin is a well known personality in the smoke room. He spends almost seven eighths of the school day indulged in coating his lungs with tar. Good luck out on the job next year.

MARK SHORTER, Port Alberni: Mark would like to see more school spirit at P.G.S.S.S. This Heritage Hunter, often found sorting bottles, eventually wants to become a pilot. Watch out for hijackers.

JOANNE SHUFELDT: Joey has been fairly busy this year trying to get two college credits as well as graduation requirements. She's also had a chance to get in shape running between CNC and the school. Good luck next year.

DENICE SHUMEY, Vanderhoof: Office Orientation with Mrs. Lea brings many fond memories to Denice. She has really benefitted from the commercial program that she followed. With no thoughts for the future she'll wish cars.

VIRGINIA SCHUSTER, Ocean Falls: Virginia's fondest memories are of the trip she made to Vancouver for the University's Visitation program. With Lit, History, French, Spanish, and English under her belt, she's going to UBC.

KATHY SIMINGTON, Fort Nelson: Kathy, one of the more enthusiastic students, is most likely to be found, jumping, yelling, and clapping. She might be in a Math class or else at a Basketball game. Let's hear it for Spirit!

CAROL SIMISTER: Carol is actually a grade 11 but has had the most glorious honor of having her picture displayed with the grade 12's. She was a very colorful addition to the Textiles 11 class.

JAMES SIMPSON, Prince Albert: James has found the automotive courses the most beneficial to him this year. It was also very interesting to plant bombs in teachers cars. James plans to get a full time job next winter.

PRAKASH SINGH, Fiji Islands: The cafeteria is the favorite haven of rest for Prakash. She loves to take it easy and talk with friends during lunch. Next year she plans to stay home, but the year after that go to college.

LAVERNE SKJEIE, Kamloops: Working has taken up a lot of Laverne's time this year but she claims she enjoys it. The commerce dept. brings back many fond memories, especially typing. Good luck at college next year.

MARCEL SKUSEK, Prince George: Marcel was one of our star Soccer players this year. He hasn't much to complain about and has enjoyed all his courses this year. Good luck on your trip to Europe Marcel.

MAUREEN SMELTS, Edmonton: As a member of the H.H. Maureen has put in a lot of hard work (money raising or grovelling). She participated in school badminton this year and had a gas. Good luck at UBC.

CHRISTOPHER PAUL SMITH, Oshawa: Paul claims he's one of the out-to-lunch bunch, and that he has had very trivial experiences with the Math department. He plans to go to college next year. If you're 16, beautiful, he's yours . . .

LINDA SOOKOCHOFF, Vancouver: Linda remembers the Socials Department: Bacon and his beanje, Gordon mixing Japanese with Russian, Robertson and his sneakers. An H.H. Planning to enter UBC, she spends her lunch studying.

LAURIE SOUTHWELL, Kamloops: Laurie is convinced that generally the cafeteria is pretty dull. You know what makes it dull? The people. She now spends most of her lunch hours at MacDonald's waiting for next year and college.

LINDA J. SPRACKLIN, Kitimat: Linda likes nature, and when she isn't practising her flute, she's outside. She went on tour with the band in May, up north. Linda plans to study practical nursing in a vocational school.

MARIANNE STOLBERG, Prince George: Marianne enjoys figure skating through all four seasons. We have had rumors that she is pretty good. She plans to attend university when she graduates. Study hard.

BRUCE STAIRS: Bruce likes to give the smoke room all he's got. That is usually 4 hours a day. The rest of the day he enjoys the courses he chose this year. He doesn't know what he'll do next year. Good Luck Bruce.

TIM STAIRS: Tim is very glad to be finishing school this year, if he makes it. The past two years have been an experience for Tim. He had to put out quite a bit of effort himself. The best to you Tim.

LYNN ST. AMAND, Prince George: Lynn most fondly remembers Mrs. Kaprels English 12 class. She also remembers trying to stay organized in Mr. Spiers Business Machines class.

DELBERT STANLEY: Delbert is known for being very proficient at Electronics. He also did very well with Mr. Neville's Physics 12. Next year will find Del at BCIT. We wish you every success there.

LINDA STANLEY, Prince George: Linda enjoys parties immensely. Too bad they don't give degrees for partying, eh? Linda plans to travel and work for the rest of her life. Have fun, but don't forget PGSSS.

ALLAN STAUB: Allan is well known for his guitar which he had abandoned lately. Allan has tried to work hard this year and hopes to make it. We hope you do too, so keep on studying.

RICK STAUB, Coldlake, Alta.: Rick, the volleyball star, wants to go to Europe after graduation. He was an active member of the student's council and showed up for a few grad committee meetings. Good luck to you.

SUE STELMOK, Czechoslovakia: Sue spent most of the past winter eating yellow snow, and that is why her face is kind of green now. She plans to pump gas in the future and says the Science dept. is full of "clazy pipple".

SHIRLEY STEWART, Prince George: Shirley travelled to London with the Heritage Hunters, to Victoria with the Drama Club, and north with the Band and choir. A popcorn pusher at the coliseum, she plans to be an elementary teacher.

DOROTHY STEWART, Prince George: Dorothy claims the one thing she has learned is how to convince her parents that Red Rock is a good place to be. She plans to travel and work in a circus. Good luck selling peanuts.

BRIAN STEWART, Prince George: Brian found Biology 12, Foods 11, and Economics 11 very interesting. He enjoyed the smokeroom, library, and the caf for intensive study. College of New Caledonia will find Brian next year.

DANNY STEWART, Prince George: Danny, alias Butch, liked CR 12 and Biology 11 a lot this year. They bring back many fond memories. Butch is most well known for playing hockey and lacrosse. Good luck at CNC.

JOSIE STILES, Quesnel: Josie seems to prefer basketball, volleyball, and the outdoors to the other courses offered at PGSSS. She is officially known as Big Stick on the courts. Have fun at CNC next year.

JACQUIE STOBBE, Chilliwack: Jacquie is one of those people everybody knows and loves. She says this to the school: "It's kind of sad to leave everyone, but life must go on - Good luck and thank you." Thank you Jacquie.

LEN STOREY, Prince Albert: Len is sure that his study was his most interesting block this year. He has no fond memories at the school but likes to fish and water-ski outside school. Best of luck at your trade.

MARIUS ST. PIERRE: Marius has enjoyed the past year at PGSSS but looks forward to graduating this year. He didn't tell us what he is going to do after he finishes school. Whatever you do Marius, good luck..

KAREN STRICKER, Edmonton: Karen remembers troubles with the boys just before grad. She also remembers fretting about the fashion show. Her dress didn't fall apart though and she looked real 'purty'. Good luck Karen.

PATSY SUTER, Prince George: Patsy enjoys skidoing and horseback riding but definitely not school. She is undecided about what she will do after grad, but we wish her luck in whatever she does.

DONNA TAIT: Donna can usually be found on the ski slopes during the winter, or else modelling ski bunny outfits. She looked forward all year to Grad, and when it finally came, she had a very good time indeed.

TED TAKAHASHI, Prince George: Ted likes playing cards instead of toking up in the smokeroom and believes that card playing should be allowed. He plans to continue his education at the college or BCIT. Keep up the good work.

DEBBIE TARSUUK: Debbie played in the school band and travelled north with them. She was also a very important part of the Swing Choir, the piano player. Good luck to you Debbie.

DEBBIE TEICHMAN, Prince George: We understand that Debbie enjoys parking late at night on top of Connaught Hill. She sometimes puts in her two bits worth at the Grad Committee meetings and the rest of the time she stands in the hall.

SANDRA TEMPLE: Sandra can usually be found wandering the halls in tow with a certain five foot nine incher. She likes the entertainment that they have out on the ranches. The best to you Sandra.

ED THESEN: Ed was a member of the Heritage Hunter's Money Mission. Between earning money and English Lit homework Ed still found time for C.J. He doesn't know what he is going to do next year. Have fun though.

PAT THESEN, Prince George: Pat is a little on the lazy side she says and thus did as little work as possible. She is very well known for her involvement in the Prince George Figure Skating Club.

BARB THIBODEAU, Duncan: Barb plans to go into secretarial or office work. The commercial department is fondly remembered by her, especially Mr. Lea. She is one of those who realizes the benefits of the cafeteria.

DAN THOMPSON, Ocean Falls: Dan was a fairly busy guy this year. He went to London with H.H.'s, worked on the Grad Committee, as well as taking Bi 12, Chem 12, and Phy 12 in the same semester. He is known as a male chauvinist.

DAVID THOMPSON: David is one of those happy go lucky persons. He is forever smiling that great grin of his. The world needs more people like you so keep up the good work and smile, smile, smile.

SUSAN THOMSON, Edmonton: Susan will remember Chem 12 for the rest of her life. When she needed help (which was most of the time) Mr. W was in the back room drinking fresh coffee out of beakers. Good luck Sue.

PEARL TIEDE, Winnipeg: Pearl has a great time drawing pictures and having parties in Mrs. Kapel's class. She thinks that the caf is a great place for meeting people. Have fun working next year.

CHERYL TODD, Lethbridge: Cheryl can usually be found in the library or Mr. Gordon's room getting into trouble. As a member of the H.H. she was introduced to Miss Lyford's stick and Mr. Bacon's jokes. Good luck at CNC.

ROSEMARY TODD, South Africa: Rosemary is another one of those few people who went to England during Mid-term break to find her heritage. She hopes to go to CNC next year. Don't let that male chauvinist get to you.

LORRIE TOEWS, Abbotsford: Lorrie enjoyed Literature 12 with Miss Lyford and History with Mr. Elias. She plans to go to university some time in the near future. Good luck Lorrie.

BETTY TOSOFF, Prince George: Betty sees marriage and work in the near future. She has enjoyed the textiles courses at this school and hopes to be able to use what she learned. Happy home Betty.

HECTOR TRIP, Hamilton: Hector can sing French Xmas Carols beautifully, as long as everybody sings out of tune with him. He was a member of the school X-country Ski Club and did a lot of skiing and snowshoeing. Good luck at UBC.

STEWART TROWSDALE: Stuart has attempted to remain an unknown to the annual club and we don't know very much about him. Hope he had a very good year at PGSSS and will look back on it fondly.

INGA VOLLING: Inga remembers getting talked into entering the fashion show and having her hems fall down and her seams come apart as she was strolling down the platform. But she had a gas doing it.

JANET VOTH, Prince George: Janet was a happy-go-lucky Heritage Hunter and had a great time in Lit 12. She remembers well having a cold for a month and having to talk stuffed up. She plans to go into teaching at SFU.

MARY UTTERHOLT: Mary has lived a very quiet life at PGSSS spending a great deal of time in the library. She is very pleased to be finally graduating after 12 long years. Congratulations.

BOB VUKOVICK: Bob is often seen wandering the halls and haunting the cafeteria. He goes to class sometimes but seldom to homeroom because he is afraid somebody might ask him to fill out a form. Well we made it without one.

GORDON WAGNER, Prince George: Gordon will always remember English 12 in Swen's class. It was a barrel of laughs. He was very interested in the construction courses this year. After completing grade 12 he plans to work.

SHERRIE WALKER: Sherrie remembers way back in grade 11 having to painstakingly embroider her name on her gym strip. We've all come a long way since then and know one another's names.

CHARLENE WANDLER, Brooks, Alta.: Charlene is one of the few people who like our cafeteria just the way it is. She misses Prince Albert, and wants to return there when she graduates. Best wishes.

NICHOLA WARBURTON, Prince George: Nichola has one fond memory of P.G.S.S.S., the day she got a 'C' in Business Machines. She hopes to travel in the future but if not she will be contented to work in an Elementary School.

BYRON WARD: This has been a great year for Byron because he doesn't have to look forward to another one in the same school. Although very quiet he's a great guy when you get to know him.

DOROTHY WARD, Hamiota, Man.: Dorothy spends her week sleeping off weekends, on which she cross country skis, hikes, and watches boys. She has been involved in the Drama Club. She plans to work next year.

WAYNE WARD: Wayne still says that Blacks are physically superior to Whites. A member of the H.H. he worked very hard all year but unfortunately missed the trip to London. He also played on the Polar Basketball Team.

KELLY WARREN, Orilla, Ont.: Kelly is one of those people who are a problem to the annual club. All we know about Kelly is that he is a "No Comment" person and that he belongs to the Breakfast Club.

MIKE WARWARUK, Prince George: Although he spent every spare moment as far from the school as possible, Mike enjoyed Drafting 12 this year. He spends his winter weekends skiing in the Calcutta Cup series. Good Luck Mike.

BILL WOSYLENKO, Flin Flon: Billy the kid is a real wiz at road hockey. "And now he's heading for the net, oh . . . intercepted by a car on 12th Ave. Bill plans to take next year off and go to university the following year.

DANNY WEATHERLY, Prince George: Danny apparently plans to become an alcoholic, (beer only) mind you. He also plans to join Alcoholics Anonymous by the time he is twenty-one. Have fun.

BRYAN WEAVER, Australia: Bryan was the star soccer player on the school team this year. He found Biology 12 so interesting that he took it twice. He is convinced that Swennumson is a hot-dog, period.

JONATHON WEAVER: Jon was a member of our Heritage Hunters this year, and enjoyed the Lit 12 course. He isn't sure what he wants to do after graduation. Whatever you do, Jonathon, have fun.

SUZANNE WEBSTER, Thunderbay: Suzanne remembers Math 12 too well for comfort; it took up a block in each semester. She played on the school volleyball team and went to London with the Heritage Hunters. Good luck at Bible School.

GERALD WEICH, Grand Prairie: Gerald's ambition is to be a beer taster for Labatts brewery. And he thinks it is great being able to pass a class that he hardly attends.

CANDY WELLER: Candy is the girl that sits in the cafeteria and tells secrets. She's good at keeping them too.

GRANT WERCHEUKE: This is another guy that couldn't spare enough time to fill out a form. Well, if you know Grant I guess that's all that counts.

DONNA WESTFALL, Nelson: Donna found Biology very interesting because it concerned the human body. She plans to continue along this path and become a nurse. Best wishes, Donna.

DARCY WHITE: Yea, Darcy! He is another guy that really enjoyed the sights in London. But we hear that the plane ride got to be a bit too much. Keep on enjoying yourself.

TOM WHITE, North Bay, Ont.: Tom's most beneficial and interesting courses were Study 11 and 12. Besides doing nothing he likes to ski, swim and go camping. He plans to make an honest living!

SANDY WHITWHAM, Burnaby: Sandy is another ski bunny. She not only hits the slopes in the winter, she also hits the waves at Cluculz in the summer. Best to you, Sandy.

RAY WHITWICK: Well Ray we sure were glad to have you around. Too bad you're leaving so soon. Why not stay around another year. But whatever you do in the future, we wish you the best.

MAUREEN WICKS, P.G.: You can always see Maureen smiling or singing. Next year she plans to go to Bible school and eventually someday become a missionary. Good luck, Maureen.

DOUG WIENS: Everybody remembers Doug. He is the guy that hides around corners and pretends that he isn't there. You're lucky we saw you.

JEANETTE WIENS: Jeanette spent a good part of this year working at the Bay. The other part of the year was censored. Her plans for the future are to work a while and then get married.

JOANN WIENS, P.G.: Joann is a cook so to speak. She spends half her time attempting to bake and the other half dreaming up what to make next. Practising for anything special?

RICHARD WILCZEK, Poland: This breakfast clubber can be found on the ski slopes or in the toolies. And he keeps his mind in shape listening to Mr. Nevill's jokes. Next year you can find Rick at U.B.C. Good luck.

ALLAN WILLIAMS, P.G.: Allan plans on being a major league baseball scorer. He likes to spend his weekends sleeping or at a ball park. Good luck at your future plans.

JAMIE WILLIAMS: Here's one of the liveliest cheerleaders we had. Thanks to Jamie not all of our school spirit was lost. We hope you have a good time in the future. Three cheers for Jamie.

SHARON WILLIAMS, Burnaby: Sharon had a good time this year, but we didn't get the details. After graduation Sharon plans on finding work as a typist.

BLAIR WILSON: Blair plans to attend Goodwill University on the island of BongoBongo, then if everything goes alright he plans to become a liberated housewife. Good luck, Blair.

KAREN WILSON: Karen is really enjoying this year to the extent that she hasn't found time to tell anyone anything. Hope you are still having the best time ever.

WENDY WILSON: Wendy is a secret admirer of Mr. Rodgers. We hear that she really likes his boots. I bet now you'll get a really good recommendation. Best to you.

MERRICK WILTON, Calgary: Burnaby Vocational looms ahead of Merrick. He remembers well his DR 11 course and Geo 12. And to all future students "You get more chips near the end of the lunch block!"

ANGELA WIMMER, Edmonton: Angela is another skier and Heritage Hunter. She became known as the London super shopper. Her future plans include continuing her education in Europe.

LYNDA WINTERS, Victoria: Lynda is well known for her love of horses and participation in horse shows. In the future she plans to become an OR technician in a hospital. Good luck Lynda.

TIM WISNOSKI, Medicine Hat, Alta.: Tim is the outdoors type. He likes fishing, camping or just being outside. He plans to continue his education in college. All the best, Tim.

TIM WOLCZUK, P.G.: Tim's only plan for the future is to continue living. If you're looking for him, he'll be hard to find 'cause he may be anywhere in the Prince George area.

NORMAN WOLE, Quesnel: Norman says that he enjoyed school and had a good time with his friends. We're glad you admitted it. After grad Norm wants to get a job and then travel.

TERRY WOLFRAN: Terry likes to smile and fool everyone. Well he fooled us: now we don't know if he is the real thing.

WEN WONG: Wen hasn't been with us too long, but what we know of him he is a really nice guy. He wants to go into med lab technology. Good luck, Wen. It'll be more of a challenge than math 12.

DOREEN WOOD, Mayerthorpe, Alt.: Doreen seems to have a pretty good day to day life, as for her future . . . We do know though that she's a good curler.

CHRISTINE WOZNEY: Yea Chris - she is always smiling. And apparently she has a lot to smile about. Love your car, and good luck at your job. Sometime in the future Chris would like to teach.

BOB WRIGHT: Bob is another regular member of the smoke room. And if he isn't there he'll be holding up some wall. Anyways he is always good for a laugh. Good luck, Bob.

GARY WUNDERLICH, P.G.: Gary is the guy at the ski hill with the cool shades. And we hear you handle the slopes pretty good. Gary's future is headed for college but he isn't sure what program.

PIRES WYLIE: Piers is hard to find because of all the girls that swarm around him. Maybe you can find yourself an isolated cave somewhere. Happy hunting.

RICK YARDLEY: Three cheers for the smoke room. If it wasn't for it Rick wouldn't know what to do. Oh well Rick, we all have our problems. Maybe it would be better though if you smoked.

BOB YOUNG, Victoria: This ski enthusiast belongs to the school band and drama club. He really enjoys parties and can usually be found in the smoke room. He plans to work and travel, work, travel, work . . .

RON YOUNG: Yes this is the real Ron Young. Best of luck, man.

WAYNE YULE: Wayne, you made it! Hope you bought an annual.

MARIE ZAGOZDZON, Nelson: Marie can usually be found in the cafeteria or library. She enjoys working on the weekends. In the near future she plans on attending CNC. Best to you, Marie.

NETTIE ZAWASKI: Nettie is another one that doesn't say much to people she doesn't know. But if you know her watch out!

ANTONIA ZAZWAK, P.G.: Antonia is another skidooper in the winter and she enjoys canoeing in the summer. In the future she would like to travel and then attend college or vocational school.

GUNNER ZOERNACK, P.G.: One good thing that Gunner found the cafeteria useful for was meeting friends. He would like to go to Germany and become a beer drinker. Hope you make it.

KEITH RELKEY: Keith has had a difficult time making up his mind this year.

LYNN TOMLINSON: Lynn seemed to enjoy her Acting 11 class. But she found little use in the other courses. Well, we hope your future brings you a lot of happiness.
